

✓ W. D. Howells
OFFICE OF THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, No. 124 Tremont Street.
Eunice
Boston, Sept. 8th, 1866.
Dear Miss Sewell:
I am sure you will credit the regret I feel in returning your sketch — in some respects so interesting and valuable. It lacks movement and vivacity, however, and is therefore not available. I cannot think of anything to say which would make the business of this letter pleasing to you, and I am ashamed to offer you the stale excuses usually repeated to contributors. I hope you will not cast me out of your friend-

OFFICE OF THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY

No. 124 Tremont Street

Boston, Sept. 8th, 1866

Dear Miss Sewell:

I am sure you
will credit the regret I feel in returning your sketch — in some respects so interesting and valuable. It lacks movement and vivacity, however,
and is therefore not available. I cannot think of anything to say which
would make the business of this letter
pleasing to you, and I am ashamed
to offer you the stale excuses usually
repeated to contributors. I hope you will not cast me out of your friend-

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 100335

Date: September 8, 1866

Description: William Dean Howells letter to Eunice Sewall, Boston

=ship, but will endure hear that we are all well here, and remember you very cordially. — I gave your address to the cashier at Ticknor and Fields, and I suppose that before this you have received a cheque for your sister's article in our last.

With Mrs Howell's and Winnie's
love,

Very sincerely yours,
W.D. Howells.

I think it might be worth while to try the Independent with your paper.

=ship, but will endure hear that we are
all well here, and remember you very cordially. — I gave your address to the cashier at Ticknor and Fields, and I suppose that before this you have received a cheque for your sister's article in our last.

With Mrs Howell's and Winnie's
love,

Very sincerely yours,
W.D. Howells.

I think it might be worth while to try the Independent with your paper.