

63
Hallowell Feb. 1. 1837.

Dear Mother: -

K. G. Robinson tells me he is going to Boston and I will not let this the only opportunity pass I have had since I saw you to send by private consequence, pass without giving you a bit of a letter - more especially as I have but just returned from Livermore as it were, from which place you will probably like to hear a word. Well I will read you a little piece of the history of my tour, which I mean shall embody all the real genuine news stirring in that notable place.

On Thursday P.M. at a little past three o'clock I took a horse and sleigh from the Livery stable and started for Livermore via Augusta, from which place I had engaged to take one of my old friends to Kent's Hill. The weather being especially cold, and the traveling bad, I concluded to stop at K.H. with my friend over night. Next morning I got started for Livermore at about 10 o'clock, and arrived at the old homestead at 1/2 past 12. I found Uncle Nathaniel and Stella there - in the evening I took little "Jemaie" in the sleigh and went down to Brettuns with Martha and Stella. The way I went was no way slow - I put on the string and away went the little mare over pitches and snow drifts in a manner which must have been a caution to cripples. But we went down Mosley's Hill "full chisel" - no mistake, despite all my efforts to hold her. - - After spending a tolerable pleasant evening

Hallowell Feb. 1. 1837

Dear Brother: -

K. G. Robinson tells me he is going to Boston and I will not let this the only opportunity pass I have had since I saw you to send by private consequence, pass without giving you a bit of a letter - more especially as I have but just returned from Livermore as it were, from which place you will probably like to hear a word. Well I will read you a little piece of the history of my tour which I mean shall embody all the real genuine news stirring in that notable place.

On Thursday P.M. at a little past three o'clock I took a horse and sleigh from the Livery stable and started for Livermore via Augusta, from which place I had engaged to take one of my old friends to Kent's Hill. The weather being especially cold, and the traveling bad, I concluded to stop at K.H. with my friend over night. Next morning I got started for Livermore at about 10 o'clock and arrived at the old homestead at 1/2 past 12. I found Uncle Nathaniel and Stella there - in the evening I took little "Jemaie" in the sleigh and went down to Brettuns with Martha and Stella. The way I went was no way slow - I put on the string and away went the little mare over pitches and snow drifts in a manner which must have been a caution to cripples. But we went down Mosley's Hill "full chisel" - no mistake, despite all my efforts to hold her --. After spending a tolerable pleasant evening

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Washburn Norlands Living History Center
 MMN # 101607
 Date: February 1, 1837
 Description: Elihu Washburne on Livermore and Kent's Hill school, Hallowell

in company with Mr. & Mrs. B. Mr. Howe, Dorilus & Amanda Brettuns "beauty bright" we returned in company with Howe who staid with ^{me} until after dinner when he and Dorilus went over the river. In the evening Martha and myself, Franklin and Sylvanus and the school master met ~~at~~ at Capt. Pray's, where we found Miss Lucy Ann and Miss Mary Jane Chandler. I felt pretty full of ginger, and I believe I should not be accused of egotism were I to say that I was the hero of that company. I blew it out straight and I verily believe they become fully convinced that "El. Washburn" was "El. Washburn" still. In the morning (Sunday) Saml, Wm. Drew and myself went up to the corner - called a moment on the lawyer and his little woman and facinating children, and then come back again in a hurry - shifted horses and went down to Capt Kendalis where I found that Steadman had got home the night before. I had a short confab with the Capt. about matters and things in which he displayed his usual good sense - come up home where I found Lucy Ann L. when I declared I must wait upon her home; so I took her and Martha into the sleigh and went over to Pray's at "Jamaies" fastest gait. When it come to return, I got one or two of the girls into the sleigh and run off over to our house with them at full speed - then after unloading I put off for Capt. Waters - found Cordelia Brook, Clarendon and "Emoret" - chatted a few minutes and told them that I was a man of much business and must be off - glad to get rid of them at that. I returned home and waited an hour or two in company with Mr. & Mrs. B, Mr. Howe, Dorilus & Amanda Brettuns "beauty me

bright" we returned in company with Howe who staid with ^ until after dinner when he and Dorillus went over the river. In the evening Martha and myself, Franklin and Sylvanus and the school master met at Capt. Pray's, where we found Miss Lucy Ann and Miss Mary Jane Chandler. I felt pretty full of ginger, and I believe I should not be accused of egotism were I to say that I was the hero of that company. I blew it out straight and I verily believe they become fully convinced that "El. Washburne was "Mr. Washburn" still. In the morning (Sunday) Saml, Wm. Drew and myself went up to the corner- called a moment on the lawyer and his little woman and facinating children and then came back again in a hurry - shifted horses and went down to Capt Kendalis where I found that Steadman had got home the night before. I had a short confab with the Capt. about matters and things in which he displayed his usual good sense - come up home when I found Lucy Ann L when I declared I must wait upon her home; so I took her and Martha into the sleigh and went over to Pray's at "Jemaies" fastest gait. When I came to return, I got one or two of the girls into the sleigh and run off over
to our house with them at full speed- then after unloading I put off for Capt. Waters - found Cordelia Brook, Clarendon, and
"Emoret" - chatted a few minutes and told them that I was a man of much business and must be off- glad to get rid of them at that. I returned home and waited an hour or two

till after supper when I departed for Hallowell, and after riding three and one half hours without making a single stop, I arrived home safe and sound after being gone three days. It was a short visit, but I kicked up my heels and made the most of it.

Father had pretty nearly finished getting up his stock of 20 cords of wood - he had two men to work for him the day I got home. I have not said any thing of our school master, who, by the way is a good one - neither have I told you that there is to be a great ball at Abel Delano's hotel some night this week, by which the legislature will be deprived of ^{the} invaluable services of Jim Holt for a few days, as he is to be "chief cook and bottle washer" of the [?]. Well, he is better fitted to be manager of a ball composed of such fellows as Ben Ellis and [?] than he is to represent the town.

Now I will say a word in regard to my humble self in particular. I have nearly concluded to remain a year from next June with Dr. N. with the advice of Israel. He gives me my board and tuition, together with what I think to be equivalent to $70 per annum. I think it a pretty good offer - I can study on my preparatory studies as long as shall be thought proper and then can study Law if I like. I will write you more about this soon - I am now tired and sleepy and my paper is filled out, so I must defer a multitude of matters till next time.

I received three letters from you to-day -

As ever
E.B. Washburn

till after supper when I departed for Hallowell, and after riding three and one half hours without making a single stop, I arrived home safe and sound after being gone three days. It was a short visit, but I kicked up my heels and made the most of it.

"Father had pretty nearly finished getting up his stock of 20 cords of wood - he had two men to work for him the day I got home. I have not said any thing of our school master, who, by the way is a good one - neither have I told you that there is to be a great ball at Able Delano's hotel some night the week, by which the legislature will be deprived of ^{the} invaluable services of Jim Holt for a few days, as he is to be "chief cook and bottle washer" of the [?]. Well, he is better fitted to be manager of a ball composed of such fellows as Ben Ellis and [?] than he is to represent the town.

Now I will say a word in regard to my humble self in particular. I have nearly concluded to remain a year from next June with Dr. N. with the advice of Israel. He gives me my board and tuition, together with what I think to be equivalent to $70 per annum. I think it a pretty good offer - I can study on my preparatory studies as long as shall be thought proper and then can study law if I like it. I will write you more about this soon - I am now tired and sleepy and my paper is filled out, so I must defer a multitude of matters till next time.

As ever

I received three letters from you to-day E.B. Washburn

Mr Robinson has gone off without taking my letter, and so I have concluded to send by mail. Father has been down here since I wrote the letter, and went home yesterday morning. The folks do well when he came from home. The Legislature has, I believe finally disposed of the seat of Gov't question - The Senate non-^{con-}curred with the House, and referred it to the next Legislature by a vote of 17 to 8

The Whigs will make something of an effort to elect Judge Bailey in Lincoln. There is no prospect of an election in either of the other districts. Of the harmony of the "democratic" party. Robinson has turned his again - nothing strange

PAID
Mr. Algernon S. Washburn
Care of E. F. Fales, Esq
24 Kilby St
Boston Mass.

How much do I owe you and when do you want your pay? That wrapper is a miserable thing - it is rotten as a ____ I have torn it monstrously - write what a good blue suit of clothes will cost me - such a suit as I must have next summer. I am greatly obliged for the letters of the other. - W.

The Tories are getting into a hair of a snarl - they cannot agree who shall be senator - they begin to call one another hard names very scientifically. Judah, Clifford and Foy Smith are the most prominent candidates. The fanatics have done holding their impious meetings yet. Mr Drew did them no more than justice in my opinion. I think of going out to the "forks to a cotillion party Monday night next. It is the first, and I mean it shall be the last for the present.

Mr Robinson has gone off without taking my letter, and so I have concluded to send by mail. Father has been down here since I wrote the letter, and went home yesterday morning. The folks are well when he came from home. The Legislature has, I believe finally disposed of the seat of gov't question- The Senate non-^{con-}^curred with the House, and referred it to the next Legislation by a vote of 17 to 8

[Text Left Sideways]

The Whigs will make something of an effort to elect Judge Bailey in Lincoln. There is no prospect of an election in either of the other districts. Or the harmony of the "democratic" party. Holmes has turned his again- nothing strange

[Text Center Sideways]

Mr Algernon S. Washburn
Care of E F Fales. Esq
2 H Kilby st.
K. G. Robinson Esq

Boston Mass.

[Text Right Sideways]

How much do I owe you and when do you want your pay? That wrapper is a miserable thing- it is rotten as a ____ I have torn it monstrously- write what a good blue suit of clothes will cost me- such a suit as I must have next summer. I am greatly obliged for the letters of the other. - W.

[Text Bottom]

The Tories are getting into a hair of a snarl- the cannot agree who shall be senator- they began to call one another hard names very scientifically. Judah, Clifford and Foy Smith are the most prominent candidates. The fanatics have[^] done holding their impious meetings yet. Mr Drew did them no more than justice in my opinion. I think of going out to the "forks to a cotillion party Monday night next. It is the first, and I mean it shall be the last for the present.