

Augusta, Aug, 5, 1850

Dear Madam,

It know not that I shall be able to lecture
for you, nor but that I may be.
Neither do I know what my subject would be.

My studies at the present moment are preoccupied.

If your evenings are not filled, and you deemed it worth your while, you might write me again, ~~when and when~~ I should be freer than at this moment.

Very truly yours,
Sylvester Judd.
