ALMON C. JUDD,
MANAGER Sunday Nov. 16 1902

Dear Papa,
I have just returned from dinner and will write you now although the weather is very tempting outside. I have been busy this week as usual perhaps more so than usual. I have completed two abstracts from Wakeman and Hassal's English Constitutional Essays. We have an other 'exam' Friday in history and at this time our notebooks have got to be handed in. After I

I went over in the hall up on

After taking this in and going tonight I guess I will have to hold me this week. I am a little anxious about having the mumps again. There are a number of cases here in College about fifteen in all, two on the floor above me. I enjoyed your article and had several of the boys read it.

Your 'Plumb' came all right and I will use it for what it was intended Besides Paying $1.50 on my coat yesterday I bought a suit of middle weight underclothes. I get enough from Horace Partridge to pay my laundry and washing each week but have got a bill of 3.50 for a tire that I owe. My Frat dues were quite large and I have paid these myself so I could not settle the 3.50. Well I have got some other letters to write so I will stop. I would like to have John Roberts come home with me Thanksgiving but don't know as it can be arranged.
