

Hillsboro Dec. 23. 1828

My Dear George I was indeed much surpris'd. at perceiving that your letter, which has this moment been received & perused, was dated at Washington City- I was somewhat disappointed that circumstances would not permit you to visit me before you left, but this is no time for the expression of regret- I am glad even to hear from you- glad to know that you are in good health- & of this be assured, wherever you may be. whatever may be your fortune. there is one who will never forget you. & remembering will never cease to observe your advancement with feelings of the most lively joy-

You will doubtless be able to obtain much useful information from the Western members, touching the prospects of professional young Gentlemen in their respective States. I have had serious thoughts of seeking a permanent residence myself in that section of the Country- but circumstances forbid such a movement at present- I intend to form no "intangling alliances" which shall nail me to N. W. Eng- And should you remain in the West, you need not be surpris'd if I should become your neighbour within two years- You say there is a

Hillsboro, Dec<sup>r</sup> 23. 1828

My Dear George

I was indeed much surprised at perceiving that your letter, which has this moment been received and perused, was dated at Washington City- I was somewhat disappointed that circumstances would not permit you to visit me before you left but this is no time for the expression of regret — I am glad even to hear from you— glad to know that you are in good health— & of this be assured, wherever you may be. whatever may be your fortune. there is one who will never forget you. & remembering will never cease to observe your advancement with feelings of the most lively joy—

You will doubtless be able to obtain much useful information from the Western members. touching the prospects of professional Young Gentlemen in the respective States. I have had serious thoughts of seeking a permanent residence myself in that section of the Country – but circumstances forbid such a movement at present – I intend to form no "intangling alliances" which shall nail me to New Eng – and should you remain in the West, you need not be surprised if I should become your neighbour within two years – You say there is a

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society
Date: Dec. 23, 1828
Description: Franklin Pierce to George Washington Pierce prospect of dull session for strangers. You may still find it a good one to take lessons in Political Manuevering.

It seems Clay is to be brought out as the Opposition Candidate. I cannot imagine how his supporters can rally with any show of courage, but he is himself a desperate man, and has perhaps the power of infusing the same spirit into his partisans - He cannot succeed, he has fallen forever.
To talk about commencing the canvass as soon as Adams retires is in my view idle. The people throughout the Nation are already tired of political excitement. They demand respite & will have it. Calhoun is mentioned as the next Republican Candidate - and I hope he will be the man ("while human nature remains &c") Mr M<sup>c</sup>Lean & Van Buren are also spoken of, either of these men, who are equal to any office, and will some day command the willing support of the Republican party - I suppose the 8th of Jan<sup>y</sup> will be celebrated with considerable spirit thro the Country. It is to be noticed in this District, by a celebration at Henniker. And the Committee of arrangements have requested me to deliver an address on the occasion, which I have consented to do. Walker you say was in Portsmouth when you left there. I believe the fellow's mind is completely engrossed with the love affair you

prospect of dull session for strangers. You may still find it a good one to take lessons in political Maneuvering.
It seems Clay is to be brought out as the opposition Candidate. I cannot imagine how his supporters can rally
with any show of courage, but he is himself a desperate
man, and has perhaps the power of infusing the same spirit
into his partisans - He cannot succeed; he has fallen forever.
To talk about commencing the canvass as soon as Adams retires
is in my view idle - The people throughout the Nation are already tired of political excitement. They demand respite &
will have it. Calhoun is mentioned as the next Republican Candidate - and I hope he will be the man ("while human
nature remains &c") Mr M<sup>c</sup>Lean & Van Buren are also
spoken of, either of these men, who are equal to any office,
and will some day command the willing support of the Republican party - I suppose the 8th of Jan<sup>y</sup> will be celebrated with considerable spirit thro the Country. It is to be noticed
in this District by a celebration at Henniker and the Committee of arrangements have requested me to deliver an address on the occasion, which I have consented to do. Walker you say
was in Portsmouth when you left there. I believe the fellow's mind is completely engrossed with the love affair you mention or some [page torn] our or else he is determined to cut my acquaintance, for I have not received a letter from him during the last three months. I have not now time to answer your interesting letter, but am greatly obliged to you for every part of it. I wrote you about four weeks since, soon after my return from Boston, & directed to Gorham from you rec<sup>d</sup> it. We shall have a fierce Contest here again in March. We hope to send a new delegation to Congress but it is very doubtful whether we shall be able to do so. Please to procure me to Mr Woodbury. You were about attending the Presidents Love when you wrote were there any beautiful young Ladies there; rich besides; you know that's an important item - Pray write often between this and Spring - and be as lengthy and as particular as your engagements will permit -

In great haste I am as ever your Friend -

Frank -

Geo. W. Pierce Esqr
Washington City

mention or some [page torn] our or else he is determined to cut
my acquaintance, for I have not received a letter from him during the last three months. I have not now time
to answer your interesting letter, but am greatly obliged
to you for every part of it- I wrote you about four weeks since, soon after my return from Boston, & directed to Gorham have you rec<sup>d</sup> it? We shall have a fierce contest here again in March- We hope to send a new delegation to Congress but it is very doubtful [page torn] whether we shall be able to do so -- Please [page torn] to present [page torn] me to Mr Woodbury. You were about attending the Presidents [?] when you wrote

Were there any beautiful young Ladies there; rich besides; you
know that's an important item - Pray write often between
this and Spring- and be as lengthy and as particular as your engagements will permit -

In great haste. I am as ever your

Friend -

Frank -

Geo. W. Pierce Esqr
Washington City