Dear Sir

I had flattered myself some time ago that you would have been up at our proprietors meeting held at this time, I wanted much to see you in order to make some arrangement for closing our old Business, or continuing of it under a new firm, if you are not coming up soon I wish you would write me what stock there is now upon hand and what debts & credits there are at this time, and such propositions for dividing or settling the joint ~~stock~~ Effects or Estate as you may think most just & convenient, - If you feel inclined to continue as we have been please to express that also I am not disposed to interrupt your wishes. I received your letter by the hand of your brother am exceeding sorry to here by it that you are out of health sincerely hope that you will be restored to perfect soundness again. Mrs Baldwin joins with me in love to you & your good Lady.

In hast I am dear sir your most obedient Servant

Josiah Pierce Junr Esq

Loammi Baldwin

I wish to sell some of my Lands in Flintstown if you can find a market for any at a reasonable price you will very much oblige me in writing I should also be willing to sell any of the Mills

It should be a letter to your Hon^d mother respects the bills of [?] wish you would peruse it & then deliver it to your mother & afford such assertions as may be in your power
