

Baldwin Jan, 4th, 1833,
Dear George,
I wish to return my grateful acknowledgements to you and Josiah for your kindness in sending me papers; for although, I never take an interest in any thing of a political nature, yet it is very gratifying to receive tokens of remembrance, and affection, from those I love, and in whose welfare, and reputation, consists so much of my happiness. I read with avidity, whatever is published of the legislative proceedings at Augusta, solely to catch the names of my Brothers, and learn, what share they are taking, in, the (as I have been long) arduous task of Legislation; and feel a peculiar satisfaction, at the passing of any resolv, or bill, advocated by either of you.
I have since your absence — received a letter from Anne, (pardon me I did not recollect to say your Wife) written in her usual style of kindness, making me very happy, by assurances

Description: Hannah Pierce on politics of her health and happiness, tinged with some regrets at the absence of her Husband! Now you will forgive my former forgetfulness, since I have recollected to bestow on you your new and Honourable title,

Mother returned from Gorham last Tuesday, she is in fine health for one of her years, has passed a pleasant Winter, was much pleas'd with her visit to yourself and Anne, Who I suppose is now Brunswick, remember me kindly to her, when you meet I hope to see you, both, at B, when you return, before you recommence housekeeping.
Mother and Phebe Elizabeth desire their love to you and Josiah, for whom we feel much anxiety, as his health has been so much impaired this winter,
Do remember me affectionaately to him,
His family were all very well when Mother left.
