

Baldwin, Feb. 28, 1861.
My dear Uncle,
I thank you for writing us by Mr. Boothby, and for informing us of the joyful news from Russia.
Welcome to Josiah the VIth!
I hope J's little ones will make good Americans by & by, though they are "born so far from their native land," as Paddy might say.
We are all having the influenza which is prevailing here. Aunt was quite sick & kept her bed for one day, but is better now.
Charles is putting up a door bell at the End door, for we

Baldwin, Feb, 28, 1861
My dear Uncle,

I thank you
for writing us by Mr. Boothby, and for informing us of the
joyful news from Russia.

Welcome to Josiah the VIth!
I hope J's little ones will
make good Americans by &
by, though they are "born so
far from their native
land," as Paddy might say
We are all having the in-
fluenza which is prevailing
here. Aunt was quite sick & kept her bed for one day
but is better now.

Charles is putting up a door
bell at the End door, for we

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society
Date: February 28, 1861
Description: Elizabeth Sanborn and Hannah Pierce letter to Josiah Pierce

are so far from it, that often we do not hear people knock.
I had a letter on Tuesday from Phebe Clark, describing a donation party made for them, at which they received over 80 dollars. She & Mr. C. were very well, & thought of going to house keeping soon.
With a great deal of love to each one at your house
I am your affectionate niece Elizabeth Sanborn.

are so far from it, that often
we do not hear people knock.
I had a letter on Tuesday
from Phebe Clark, describing
a donation party made for
them, at which they received
over 80 dollars. She & Mr. C.
were very well, & thought of going
to house keeping soon.

With a great deal of love to
each one at your house

I am your affectionate niece

Elizabeth Sanborn.

My Dear Brother, and Sister
I cannot forbear offering you a word of congratulation on the acquisition of another Josiah, since I learned that such an event was about to transpire I have felt quite desirous, that ~~was~~ the little Stranger was expected, that it might prove a son, and had they given it any other name, I should have been much disappointed, and say to Josiah Sixth, that it is the strict injunction, of Old Maid Aunt that his first Son, be called by the same name, endeared to me by so many tender ties, and grateful recollections, I can write but little, as I have a bad influenza, and, have been attacked by old enemys Vertigo, and Nausea, have also had, an excapilir sore on my head, but the Dr gave me something

My Dear Brother, and Sister
I cannot forbear offering you a word
of congratulation on the acquisition
of another Josiah, since I learned that
such an event was about to transpire
I have felt quite desirous, that was
the little Stranger was expected, that it might prove to be a son, And had
they given it any other name, I should
have been much disappointed, and
say to Josiah Sixth, that it is the
strict injunction of Old Maid Aunt
that his first Son, be called by
the same Name, endeared to me
by so many tender ties, and grateful
recollections, I can write but
little, as I have a bad influenza,
and, have been attacked by old
enemys Vertigo, and Nausea, have
also had an excapilir[?] sore on my
head, but the Dr gave me something that stoped its progress, I have a great dread of them sores, My kind love to all your Children, and Grandchildren, with my thanks to your Daughters for the Almanack. they so kindly sent me,

Adieu my
Dear Brother and Sister,

Your truly affectionate

Sister Hannah.

Hannah Pierce &
P. B. Johnson
July 28. 1861

that stoped its progress, I have a great dread of those sores,
My kind love to all your
Children, and Grandchildren, With thanks to your Daughters
for the Almanack. they so
kindly sent me,

Adieu my
Dear Brother and Sister,
Your truly affectionate
Sister Hannah.