

2
Baldwin, May 7th, 1866

My very dear Brother,
It is many
long months since, my trembling fingers, have, grasped a pen, except,
to write my ~~pe~~ name. But I feel a strong desire, to write you once more, to assure you how deeply I sympathize with you in your affliction, and how earnest
-ly I pray for your recovery - and that I may, yet welcome you once more to our old home, I am very glad that Lewis, will take care of my business, as Lydia Jane, is now married, and, has had, as much half that I bequeathed, her, I wish to divide the thousand, dollars, given to her equally, between, Lydia Jane and my Niece Elisabeth P Sanborn

Baldwin, May 7th, 1866

My very dear Brother,

It is many
long months, since, my trembling
fingers, have, grasped a pen, except
to write my ~~pe~~ name, But I
feel a strong desire, to write-
you once more, to assure you how
deeply I sympathize with you
in your affliction, and how earnest
-ly I pray for your recovery -
and that I may, yet welcome you
once more to our old home, I am
very glad that Lewis will take care
of my business, as Lydia Jane, is
now married, and has had, as much as
half^ that I bequeathed, her, I wish to
divide the thousand, dollars, given to
her equally, between, Lydia Jane
and my Niece Elisabeth P Sanborn

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society
Date: May 7, 1866
Description: Hannah Pierce's last letter to her brother also that the household furniture and utensils, to be divided between them, I do not intend to burden you, with this business, but, life is,

at my advanced age so uncertain that I dare not, let my will remain, as it is, you will show this letter to Lewis, I was much gratified, to read Josiah's letter, and he could not, have, made me any present, which, would have given me so much pleasure, as those Photographs, of himself, where any of you write to, him, do say so, and give my love, and thanks to him, it seems as though I must see Lewis, and I do hope your health will, <sup>be</sup> equal to coming with him, to Baldwin, give my love to your Wife, Children, and Grandchildren, and that Our Heavenly Father, may be very near to

also that the household furniture
and utensils, to be divided between
them, I do not intend to burden
you, with this business, but, life is
at my advanced age so uncertain
that I dare not, let my will
remain, as it is, you will show
this letter to Lewis, I was much
gratified to read Josiah's letter,
and he could not, have made
me any present, which, would have
given me so much pleasure, as those Photographs of himself, when
any of you write to, him, do say
so, and give my love, and thanks
to him, it seems as though I
must see Lewis, and I do hope
be your health will, ^ equal to coming
with him to Baldwin, give my love to your Wife, Children and
Grandchildren, And that Our Heaven
-ly Father, may be very near to

You, alleviate your sufferings and again restore you to health, is the fervent aspiration of your poor old sister, of Seventy Eight

Many thank, to dear Nancy for her kind letter, We are very anxious, to hear from you, often,

you, alleviate your sufferings
and again restore you to
health, is the fervent aspiration of you poor old sister, of

Seventy Eight
Many thank, to dear Nancy
for her kind letter, We are
very anxious to hear from
you, often.