GEORGE THORNTON EDWARDS

Tempo di Marcia

VOICE

From north to south, from sea to sea,
 — Those who go a way from thee,
 Thy sons are known from east to west, Thy name is great, thy fame is long, guard it from all wrong decree, Let there be none from Bound by bonds of durity; With pride our bosoms of the Pine Tree and of rest, To thee we give our given us men both brave and strong, To fight for right, or blot more free In this sweet land of liberty, swell to see Thee grow each day in dignity, very best, Extending welcome to each guest, right a wrong; So let us sound thy praise in song,
