Dear Miriam, I received your letter last night after I had mailed one to Elzira, was glad to hear from you that you was all well. it seems that Granpa is getting along finely, I am well & hope this will find you all the same, I wrote to Elzira with a pencil but I have borrowed some ink this morning, this is a verry fine morning not so cold as it has been for a day or two. I am in my Amb writing & watching my horses to let them feed we are in a field where there is a good chance for our horses, there is a report that they have caught Booth the murderer of Lincoln I hope that it is so I should like to see that villing strung up, he will be & a number more if they cetch them. I had Description: William Haley letter to wife not any blanket or gloves in that box my things & Charles was marked the gloves & blanket must of been Johns, there was a pair of white gloves in my dress coat pocket that belong to me, you wrote about the grass seed that was high it is verry high but do not scant the quantity any for that light ground wants more than wetter ground, I expect that you have snug work to get along for money but I am in hopes to get some before a grate while to send to you we shall be mustered for pay next Saturday, Johnny says the oxens leg is well, I am glad of that, the third brigade is over on Arlington Highth Va. about eight miles from here the other two are not far from here there was three Amb went from our brigade yesturday over to the third brigade to stop there with them. most every one thinks that we shall get home before long some of the officers say by the first of June but that is all guess work. I would not wonder if the first of July would fetch us home. I have not herd anything about the Amb. train being broken up since we got here I hope that it will not be as long as we have to stay out here. for I like to take care of horsses & than I like to ~~write~~ ride. what does the copper heads say about the murder of Lincoln I do not know what they can say. I do not think of any thing more to write.

Give my love to the children & take a share to your self
