

87 Lime street
Newburyport
Massachusetts
Oct. 17,
1951

Dear Corinne,
I had no idea that it would be so long before I wrote you, after my return home; but I was unfortunate in being sick & the Dr. put me to bed and ordered me to stay there, or else! so I preferred being sensible, to being foolish and taking the consequences.

I'm enclosing copies I had made of Vincent's graduation photos, to which you are very welcome. It would appear that she took her graduation photos quite seriously, for the whimsical "Puckish" cute smile of hers seems to have been absent. I've always loved these pictures, however. They were a

87 Lime Street
Newburyport
Massachusetts
Oct. 17,
1951

Dear Corinne,
I had no idea that it would be so long before I wrote you, after my return home; but I was unfortunate in being sick & the Dr. put me to bed and ordered me to stay there, or else! so I preferred being sensible, to being foolish and taking the consequences.

I'm enclosing copies I had made of Vincent's graduation photos, to which you are very welcome. It would appear that she took her graduation photos quite seriously, for the whimsical "Puckish" cute smile of hers seems to have been absent. I've always loved these pictures, however. They were a

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Camden Public Library

MMN # 73078

Date: October 17, 1951

Description: Letter of Millay's "Auntie Kem" to Corinne Sawyer regarding Millay's graduation photos.

2 gift to her from me, and possibly I may not have realized how many she would need to go all around the class, and relatives, too, for it was a big family, taking in both "sides" — so perhaps she didn't have enough I'm very happy to be able to provide the other "red-head" friend and chum of hers with one even at this late date; and I'm sure she would have been glad to have me do so. I was living in Newburyport then, too, though I've seen quite a lot of our Country and Canada in between. But in those days we didn't find it so easy to travel as now, with motors at our command. I've written to Mr. MacDougall in N.Y. and it will go into the P.O. at the same time that this does; I told him of your 3 lovely letters and also that you

2 gift to her from me, and possibly I may not have realized how many she would need to go all around the class, and relatives too, for it was a big family, taking in both "sides" — so perhaps she didn't have enough I'm very happy to be able to provide the other "red-head" friend and chum of hers with one even at this late date; and I'm sure she would have been glad to have me do so.

I was living in Newburyport then, too, though I've seen quite a lot of our Country and Canada in between. But in those days we didn't find it so easy to travel as now, with motors at our command.

I've written to Mr. MacDougall in N.Y. and it will go into the P.O. at the same time that this does; I told him of your 3 lovely letters and also that you would send him copies only of them. Unless he is away, I'm confident that you'll hear from him quite soon; I wish that I could tell how much I enjoyed my short, all too brief visit with you. It will remain in my memory as something quite of an enchanting nature, and I hope to see you again at some fortunate future date.

Thank you for the courtesies shown.
Do you expect to have "The Indigo Bunting" by Vincent Sheean in your library? It is just out, and is a biography of a sort, of Vincent.
I do not see it yet. Good-night Corinne and I wish you health and Good Luck!
Sincerely, C.M. Parsons "Vincent's Auntie Kem"

would send him copies only of them. Unless
he is away, I'm confident that you'll hear
from him quite soon; I wish that I could tell how much I enjoyed my short, – all too brief – visit with you. It will remain
in my memory as something quite of
an enchanting nature, and I hope to see
you again at some fortunate future date.

Thank you for the courtesies shown.
Do you expect to have "The Indigo Bunting" by Vincent Sheean in your library? It is just out, and is a biography of a sort, of Vincent}
Millay}

I've not seen it yet. Good-night Corinne and I wish you health and Good Luck!

Sincerely, C.M. Parsons "Vincent's Auntie Kem"