

This indenture, made this 24th day of June A.D. 1882 by & between Moses Parsons of Norway in the County of Oxford & David P. Brooks of said Norway, Farmer, -
That the said Moses Parsons, doth by these presents place, find & indent his grandson W^m Curtis Stiles to the said David P. Brooks, to learn the art & trade of a farmer - & with him the said David P. Brooks offer the manner of an apprentice to dwell & serve from the day of the sealing hereof until the 25th day of May, 1896 when the said minor will arrive at the age of twenty one years -
And during said term the said apprentice shall well & faithfully serve his said master & shall give & devote to him his whole time & labor. He shall not marry during said term, nor use ardent spirits, or practice gaming or other unlawful sports, nor waste, injure or destroy the property of his master, but conduct himself in a sober, temperate, honest manner, & as a good & faithful apprentice ought to do during all the time aforesaid -
And the said David P. Brooks for himself, his executors & administrators doth hereby covenant with the said Moses Parsons that he will faithfully instruct said apprentice in the art or occupation aforesaid - as far as said apprentice may be capable to learn - & allow him all the benefit & the privilege of the common schools in said town of Norway, & constantly provide him with good & sufficient & suitable food, lodging & clothing, & all other things necessary in sickness & health - & will train him up in the habits of industry, temperance & virtue (over)

This indenture, made this 24th day of June A.D. 1882 by and between Moses Parsons of Norway in the County of Oxford. and David P. Brooks of said Norway, Farmer, -

Witnesseth
that the said Moses Parsons, doth by these presents-place, find and indent his grandson W^m Curtis Stiles to the said David P. Brooks to learn the art and trade of a farmer. and with him the said David P. Brooks offers the manner of an apprentice to dwell and serve from the day of the ensembling hereof until the 25th day of May, 1896, when the said minor will arrive at the age of twenty one years.

And during said term the said apprentice shall well and faithfully serve his said master and shall give and devote to him his whole time and labor. He shall not marry during said term, nor use ardent spirits,
or practice gaming or other unlawful sports, nor
waste, injure, or destroy the property of his master, but
conduct himself in a sober, temperate, honest manner, and as a good and faithful apprentice ought to do during
all the time aforesaid.

And the said David P. Brooks for himself, his executors and administrators doth hereby covenant with the said Moses Parsons that he will faithfully instruct said apprentice in
the art or occupation aforesaid, as far as said apprentice may be capable to learn, and allow him all the benefit and privilege of the common schools in said town of Norway, and constantly provide him with good, and sufficient and suitable food, lodging and clothing, and all other things necessary in sickness and health, and will train him of in the habits of industry, temperance and virtue

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 75373

Date: June 24, 1882

Description: In this document Moses Parsons indentured his grandson William Curtis Stiles to David P. Brooks to learn to be a farmer until his twenty-first birthday.

In testimony whereof, the said Parties have hereunto set their hands and seals this 24th day of June A.D. 1882.

Witness Geo. A. Wilson

Moses Parsons
David P. Brooks

In testimony whereof the said Parties have
hereunto set their hands and seals this 24th day
of June A.D. 1882.

Witness Geo. A. Wilson Moses Parsons
David P. Brooks