

Little Rest Nov. 17, 1825.
Rev. and Dear Sir, The Indians have done the repairs of their school house in part; and have left their bills with me, requesting me to write you for the money granted by the Society for assisting them in the repairs of it. Doct. Rose, who will probably hand you this, will return at the close of the Medical Lectures; and will be ready to take any communication from you, should you not previously send the money. Shall I pay the whole money to their council before the repairs are completed; or shall I pay the bills only, as the work is done? or shall I use discretion respecting it? The state of things here is as hopeful, as has been usual with us.
I am, Rev. and Dear Sir, respectfully Oliver Brown.
