and Parsing

We have a very pleasant School, more pleaser than it was in the Spring. we have a new set of teachers, Mr. Adines Brother is an assistant ands Wife Sister is persepteris all in a bunch. There is about a 100 Students in now they come every day there is good many young Ladies in more then there was in the Spring. I am a thinking that you had better come up here to school this Autumn instead of going to Bath. I board down in the age of fayette to Mrs Goss's. She is a fine old lady. Wen we set down to eat our Victuals She will begin to talk about her victuals and She will talk till we git up again. She has one Daughter and she is as homely as the wide hills, but Oάνή έπίτιχδ παχή πής you αίχδs. Warren is not very well to day he has a violant head ache. I took your little trunk to fetch my Books in I will take good care of it and return it to you when I emmigrate. I could not come to see you when I came up here Because it would be inconveient but I wanted to. pray give my most dutiful respects to the inquiring friends and take my kindest love. Pray write

Description: Letter to Sarah Tarbox from her brother, Valentine as often as opportunity opportunity and leisure will will permit; and be assured, that a letter from you will always give ~~greate~~ great Satisfaction to me. your affectionate Brother you excuse my Bad writing because my hand trembles very bad, but when I get leisure I will try to write you good pease of Composition. I expect to go home in October
