

Kiah Bayley Sewall

I was born on the 2^d Dec, 1807 in Edgecomb, on the left bank of the Sheepscot, about three miles below Wiscasset, Lincoln County, Maine. I was the 7th Son, and the 12th & youngest Child of my parents Samuel Sewall and Elizabeth Trask his wife. When I was Seven years of age my father removed to Phippsburg, on the Kennebec, Here & on Arrousic Island then Georgetown, I living at home, working on a farm, and attending the Summer & Winter town school, - In the winter of 1822-3 - I studied the Latin grammar at the ~~public~~ ^{public} school, - In Dec, 1823 I went to Farmington Academy, then under charge of Nathaniel Green, a brother in law, my graduate of Harvard, where I fitted for college, In the winter 1824-5 I taught school in the Upper District in Farmington for four months - and in August thereafter entered Bowdoin College - Samuel Mudgett & myself were classmates together at Farmington & chums for the first time in College - On leaving college in 1829 I was invited to Sardinia in connection with E. L. Cushing, a graduate of Harvard, and now a lawyer in New Hampshire, we took charge of the Gardiner Lyceum ~~Inde~~ I remained in Sardinia ^{nine ~~than~~ a year} nearly two years &

I was born on the 2^d Dec, 1807 in Edgecomb, on the left bank of the Sheepscot, about three miles below Wiscasset, Lincoln County, Maine - I was the 7th Son, and the 12th & youngest child of my parents - Samuel Sewall and Elizabeth Trask his wife. When I was Seven years of age my father removed to Phippsburg, on the Kennebec, Here & on Arrousic Island then Georgetown, I living at home, working on a farm, and attending the Summer & Winter town school - In the winter of 1822-3 - I studied the Latin grammar at the public ^ School, In Dec. 1823 I went to Farmington Academy, there under charge of Nathaniel Green, a brother in law, and graduate of Harvard, where I fitted for college, In the Winter of 1824-5 I taught school in the Upper District in Farmington for four months - and in August thereafter entered Bowdoin College - Samuel [?] & myself were classmates together at Farmington & chums for the first time in College -

Town

On leaving College in 1829 I was invited to Gardiner & in connection with E. L. Cushing, a graduate of Harvard, and now a lawyer in New Hampshire, we took charge of the Gardiner Lyceum [cross out] more than a year

I remained in Gardiner nearly two years &

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society MMN # 98902

Date: ca. 1854

Description: Kiah B. Sewall brief autobiography then removed to New York City, where I was engaged in teaching about two years — I then went to ~~Missouri~~ St. Louis, travelled over Missouri & Illinois, — and spent the winter in New Orleans, returned to New York in July 1834, engaged in the Common Business, the next year was induced to go into timber land Speculations, — which resulted in Bankruptcy — I married the 16

May 1836, Lucretia Day, daughter of Ezekiel Day Esq. of Portland — In December of that year I ~~entered~~ ~~the~~ commenced the Study of the law — and soon after entered the Office of James W. Gerard Esq. of which I remained till Jan'y 1839, at which time hard study and a low ^{winter} brought on a severe hemorrhage of the lungs — which led to my embarking for this place where I arrived in March 1839 where I have continued to reside —
~~in the practice of the law to the present time~~ From ~~the~~ 1839 till Oct. 1843, I was on a salary in ^{a law} the Office of Stewart & Eatten — after that in practice on my own account — My practice from the outset has embraced a large number of litigated cases — which has required my attendance at the Sup. Court

then removed to New York City, where I was engaged in teaching about two years — I then went to Missouri-St. Louis, travelled
over Missouri & Illinois — and spent
the winter in New Orleans, returned to New York in July 1834, engaged in the [?] business, the next year was induced to
go into timber land speculations — which resulted in Bankruptcy — I married the 16
May 1836, Lucretia Day, daughter of Ezekiel
Day Esq. of Portland — In December of that year I ~~entered~~ the commenced the Study of the law — and soon after entered the offices of James W. Gerard Esq. of where I remained till Jan'y 1839 at which time hard study and a low living brought on a Severe hemorrhage
of the lungs — which led to my embarking
for this place where I arrived in March 1839 & where I have continued to reside —
~~in the practice of the law to the present time~~ —
From April 1839 till Oct. 1843, I was on a law on salary in the ^ office of Stewart & Eatten - after that in practice on my own account —

My practice from the outset has embraced a large number of litigated cases — which has required my attendance at the Sup. Court

~~Every time~~ - and has also extended to the
Sup. Court of the U.S. at Washington - I have had to contend with ~~the ablest man~~ ~~at the bar -~~
~~have now more reputation as a sound &~~
~~able lawyer, than I have dollars & cents -~~ { We have Seven Children five Daughters, thro long - all born here, but the Eledest who was born at her Grandfather's in Portland - We have lost one -
My name appears in the Alabama Reports from Vol. 6, to the 30th & last inclusion - and in the 10th, & 14, Howard's

Every time = and has also extended to the
Sup. Court of the U.S. at Washington - I
the ablest man

have had to contend with ^ hard [cross out]
at the bar-

~~have now more reputation as a sound &~~
~~able Lawyer & than I have dollars & cents -~~

We have Seven Children five Daughters & two Sons - all born here, but the Eledest who was born at her grandfather's in Portland -

We have lost one -

My name appears in the Alabama Reports from Vol. 6, to the 30th & last inclusion -
and in the 10th, & 14, Howard's