

Brunswick April 7 1826

My Dear Brother

Mr. Sherman will set out for Edgcomb, in the course of an hour. And I can not let the opportunity pass of sending you a few lines, although I am very busy. We are called, my Dear Brother, by the providence of God to experience a severe affliction. Our beloved and dear Father is no more. He is gone never to return. O that I could express to you the emotions of my mind. The last time I was at home, which is more than a year and a half since, little did I think, that the face which then beamed with affection and joy would never again be seen in this world. The place where I last saw him and the words he uttered, are as well recollected, as if it were yesterday. But it is the hand of God and we should not repine. Though He has sorely afflicted us, yet may we be enabled to say "blessed be the name of the Lord." It is a loud call to all of us, to prepare to meet our God. But to me in particular it seems to say "be

Brunswick April 7 1826

My dear Brother

Mr. Sherman will set out for Edgcomb in the course of an hour. And I can not let the opportunity pass of sending you a few lines, although I am very busy. We are called my Dear Brother, by the providence of God to experience a severe affliction. Our beloved and dear Father is no more.

He is never to return. O that I could express to you the emotions of my mind. The last time I was at home, which is more than a year and a half since, little did I think, that the face which then beamed with affection and joy would never again be seen in this world. The place where I last saw him and the words he uttered, are as well recollected as if it were yesterday. But it is the hand of God, and we should not repine. Though He has sorely afflicted us yet may we be enabled to say "blessed be the name of the Lord." It is a loud call to all of us to prepare to meet our God. But to me in particular it seems to say "be

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society MMN # 98969

Date: April 7, 1826

Description: Kiah B. Sewall on death of father ye also ready. Last wednesday I had the satisfaction of seeing our Dear Mother and Sister, a few moments while the Stage stopped, on their returne with Samuel. I did not learn many of the particulars. Father was sick one week with the fever, and had every attention paid him. Benj<sup>m</sup> is now in Exeter in a store.

As to College, I am glad to say, there is some appearance of an attention to religion six or seven of my Classmates are very anxious and I hope we may be enabled to persevere in our resolution to seek an interest in the Saviour. I would write you much more if time would permit. You must write me as soon as an opportunity permits.

Your prayers are earnestly requested in our behalf. That we may all be wise unto Salvation, and remember that our end draweth near. In haste from your loving and afflicted Brother K. B. Sewall
Mr Rufus Sewall

ye also ready. Last wednesday I had the satisfaction of seeing our Dear Mother
and Sister, a few moments while the stage
stopped, on their returne with Samuel. I did not learn many of the particulars. Father
was sick one week with the fever, and had every
attention paid him. Benj<sup>m</sup> is now in Exeter
in a store.

As to College, I am glad to say, there is some appearances of an attention to religion six or seven of my Classmates are very anxious
and I hope we may be enabled to persevere
in our resolution to seek an interest in the Saviour. I would write you much more
if time would permit. You must write me
as soon as an opportunity permits —

a

Your prayers are earnestly requested in our behalf.

O that we may all be wise unto
Salvation, and remember that our end draweth near.

In haste from your loving and afflicted
Brother K. B. Sewall

Mr Rufus Sewall