

Mobile July 20, 1865

Dear Somers,

Your mother, Eunice, Ellen, Ada Sammy, Arthur & perhaps my self may leave here on Saturday or next Monday for Portland via Chicago, Niagara &c -
The route is not definitely fixed nor the time - Some of us will write you again before leaving - & may be from some of the points on the way. There are reasons why I should go & reasons why I should stay - The probability is I shall go - I can leave here better now than later - & my presence on the way will be quite necessary -
As to politics here, things are going wrong. Under the proclamation of the President the very bitterest &

Mobile July 20, 1865

Dear Somers,

Your mother, Eunice, Ellen, Ada
Sammy, Arthur & perhaps my
self may leave here on Saturday
or next Monday for Portland
via Chicago, Niagara &c -
The route is not definitely fixed nor
the time - Some of us will write you
again before leaving - & may be
from some of the points on the
way. There are reasons why I should
go & reasons why I should stay - The
probability is I shall go - I can leave
here better now than later - &
my presence on the way will be
quite necessary -

As to politics here things are going wrong. Under [torn] proclamation of the President [torn] the very bitterest &

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society MMN # 99433

Date: July 20, 1865

Description: K.B. Sewall on plans to return to Portland worst Secessionists will be eligible electors to the convention - & they will control & carry with them the expeditious Union men - & so have the majority - Their object will be to make the condition of the negro worse than it was before -

The proclamation has so elated the slaveholding aristocracy that they have given up the idea of emigration to Brazil & because they are confident of now beating at the ballot.

Not a true Union man here has received office of any description except, Montagne, the collector of Customs, and he, unfortunately,
though a gentle family, clever man in the bank house - is obliged

worst Secessionists will be eligible & electors to the convention - &
they will control & carry with them
the expeditious Union men - &
so have the majority - Their object
will be to make the condition of
the negro worse than it was
before -

The proclamation has so
elated the slaveholding aristocracy
that they have given up the
idea of emigration to Brazil -
because they are confident of
now beating at the ballot.

Not a true Union man here
has received office of any description
except, Montagne, the Collector of Customs, and he, unfortunately,
though a gentle family, clever man
in the bank house is obliged

to rely on his subordinates - and has been flattered into the toils of the disloyal - (see the correspondence published here a few days ago -) and has not the firmness or nerve to act on his own judgment -

My only hope is in Congress - Lucretia or Eunice recvd a letter from you yesterday - for which we are greatly obliged to you but there are some things in it that I did not expect & that you should truly remedy in future I am surprised that you should write "haft" for have to. Do correct your spelling, if you ever have to cha[] a dictionary to you - It is in[]cusable -

to rely on his subordinates - and
has been flattered into the
toils of the disloyal - (see
the correspondence published here
a few days ago -) and has
not the firmness or nerve to
act on his own judgment -

My only hope is in Congress -
Lucretia or Eunice recvd a letter from you yesterday - for
which we are greatly obliged to you
but there are some things in it
that I did not expect & that you should truly remedy [?]
I am surprised that you should
write "haft" for have to. Do
correct your Spelling if you ever have to cha[torn] a dictionary to you - It is in[torn]cusable -

The plan is to leave Lucretia & Abby here - You must write them often - Every week at least - Dont fail -

Give my regards to all ever most truly & affectionately

K. B. Sewall

K. B. Sewall
July 20. 1865

The plan is to leave Lucretia &
Abby here - You must write
them often - Every week at least - Dont fail -

Give my regards to all ever most truly yours affectionately

K. B. Sewall