

The Longfellow Garden Club
of Portland, Maine
Was Organized March 12, 1924

The Club restored and has continuously maintained this garden, adjoining the family mansion which is visited by many guests from all parts of the world

.....

We believe the lovers of the great poet and those who know and feel the joy and inspiration of the garden spots of life may wish to become life members of our club

Information may be obtained from the secretary of the Longfellow Garden Club
485 Congress Street

The Arrow and the Song

I shot an arrow into the air. It fell to earth, I know not where; For so swiftly it flew the sight Could not follow it in its flight.	I breathed a song into the air. It fell to earth, I know not where; For who has sight so keen and strong That it can follow the flight of song?
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Long, long afterward in an oak
I found an arrow, still unbroke;
And the song from beginning to end
I found again in the heart of a friend.
... Longfellow

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society
MMN # 100207

Date: ca. 1924
Description: Longfellow Garden Club sign