Beloved friends

I have now seated myself to write a few lines to you. I suppose you must know that I arrived at Mr. Wentworth's about five o'clock the same day that I started from home. I tried to get work in the weave room but was not successful, and I thought I should have to return home until I went down to Mr. Shorey's, and he told me that he thought I could get work in the five spin room, and in this I was successful. I have been very lucky in getting a first rate boarding place at Mr. Shorey's house on Maine street No forty eight, a few steps from Mr. Shorey's they have twelve boarders and ^{they} all appear to be very good steady girls. I went to work in the spin room wednesday, it being just a week from the time I started from home, and I like the work a great deal better than ~~ever~~ I expected to when I started from home. I have had a very pleasant girl to learn with, and I think I could tend one side of a frame if I had it to tend, but I do not expect to get work of my own very soon, there is ~~so~~ so many spare girls. I have been well and contented ever since I started from home, although I think of home and all of my friends at home very often, and want to ^{see} them very much. I think if I am well and all of you at home are well I shall stay untill next September and go home with Susan and then I expect we shall be so nice and polite, that you will be afraid ~~not~~ not know us. I want some of you to write as soon as you get this and write all of the news for I am longing to hear from you. I want Mary to be sure and write to ^{me} whether she has got a school engaged or not. Give my love to all enquiring friends. I have not time to write any more so I will say, good bye.

 Description: Martha J. Moulton letter about mill work, New Hampshire
