

Ms 124
Sunday evening Sept 9. 1850
Dear Lu -
Yesterday after dinner I was delighted to get your letter & to know that you were all well - poor little Ellen seems to have more ill turns than formerly - when young she was always well - Saturday I woke up rather late. found it raining hard & it continued raining most all day - I went up to the Capitol about 11. remained till half past 3. chiefly in the House of Reps. The California bill was passed while I was there & I left the House discussing voting on the Utah bill which was passed before it adjourned - The Senate was not in session - I did not have an opportunity to speak to a person I know - nor have I yet - The public offices are only open for business from 9 to 3. - So that I have as yet done nothing - To morrow morning I shall make my way to the Land office, which is near the President's House - about a mile from the Capitol - I wish to see Senator King or Mr Alston - our representative first -
There is much here to interest a stranger & as yet I have seen but little of it - I went to Mr. Smith's church today - forenoon & afternoon - 9th St. & heard two excellent

Sunday evening Sept 9, 1850

Dearest Lu,

Yesterday after dinner I was delighted to get
your letter & to know that you were all well - poor
little Ellen seems to have more ill turns than
formerly - when young she was always well -

Saturday I woke up rather late & found it
raining hard - it continued raining most all
day - I went up to the Capitol about 11. remained till half past 3, chiefly in the House of Rep. The California bill was passed while I was there & I left the House discussing voting on the Utah bill which was passed before it adjourned - the Senate was not in session - & I did not have an opportunity to speak to a person I know - nor have I yet - The public offices
are only open for business from 9 to 3. - So
that I have as yet done nothing -

To morrow morning I shall make my
way to the Land office, which is near
the President's House - about a mile from the Capitol. I wish to see Senator King or Mr
Alston - our representative first -

There is much here to interest a Stranger
& as yet I have seen but little of it - I went to Mr. Smith's church today - forenoon & afternoon - 9th St. & heard two excellent seems from the text "render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's, & unto God the things that are God's" - the first part of the subject in the morning & the latter part in the afternoon - The Church was well filled & you would have liked the preacher -

O I shall be delighted when I get away from here - every day seems an age - worse - If you were here I should be content to stay till you were satisfied with seeing - Coming from Church to day I passed a House with A. K. Parris on the door - Is Hartley here - I shall enquire for him - This will hardly be worth the postage - but I will send it -

O I ascertained coming on that Mrs.
Fosdick, husband of Charleston is of the firm Fosdick & Cohen - or Cohen & Fosdick - which Mrs. Cohen married a sister of Mrs. Phillips -

Shall we stop at the Fremont, Boston Answer me to this at New York - I must stop there among other things to get some clothes for I have nothing that in the north would be respectable to wear - What I have are thin & none of the newest Good [?] but I shall stay there just as short a time as possible - I shall write you from New sermons; from the text "render unto Caesar

the things which are Caesar's, & unto God
the things that are God's" - the first part
of the subject in the morning & the
latter part in the afternoon - The Church
was well filled & you would have liked
the preacher -

O I shall be delighted when I get
away from here - every day seems an age to me - If you were here I should be content to stay till you were satisfied
with seeing - Coming from Church to
day I passed a House with A. K. Parris
on the door - Is Hartley here - I shall enquire for him -

This will hardly be worth the postage - but I will send it -

O I ascertained coming on: that Mrs
Fosdick, husband of Charleston is of the firm Fosdick & Cohen - or Cohen & Fosdick - which Mr. Cohen married a sister of Mrs. Phillips -

Shall we stop at the Fremont, Boston Answer me to this at New York - I must
stop there among other things to get some
clothes for I have nothing that in the north
would be respectable to wear - What I have are thin & none of the newest Good [?]
but I shall stay there just as short a time
as possible - I shall write you from New York what day I will be in Boston & where I will meet you - I shall expect to meet you at one of the Depots - say lower one - that is through Portsmouth & Salem - & will duly advise you -

There is great rejoicing here on account of the passage of the Senate bills - & well there may be - the House have but one bill more to act on - the fugitive slave bill - which will come up to-morrow -

By dropping this in the P.O. this evening it will go by the morning mail & so adieu Dearest one God bless you ever your own Husband
K.B.S.

York what day I will be in Boston &
where I will meet you -

I shall expect to meet you at one of the
Depots - say lower one - that is through
Portsmouth & Salem - & will duly advise
you -

There is great rejoicing here
on account of the passage of the Senate
bills - & well there may be - the
House have but one bill more to act
on - the fugitive slave bill - which will come up to-morrow -

By dropping this in the P.O. this
evening it will go by the morning mail & so adieu Dearest one God bless you ever your own Husband

K.B.S.