

If Father could come up he can have a good deal of the money due me to get him some provisions, I want to send down though to get me a calico dress and some books for the children.
 I presume prices will go down in anticipation of an attack. Give my love to Olivia and all friends. I will write again as soon as I receive a letter E. D. S.

Choctaw Cy. Jan 30th/64

My dear sister,
 Saturday morning general finds me with something to do. After breakfast, I looked over a Mobile paper of the 23<sup>d</sup> belonging to Dr. Burns. Then I washed out some little things and did some odd jobs about the room read a little in Moliere, and when I have finished this letter, have to run the hoops into my skirt.
 The weather is mild and delightful the air is full of birds and in the distance I hear the mournful note of the dove. Everything seems to betoken the near approach of spring, but the gathering clouds give warning of a storm bringing probably, cold weather in its train.
 It was a week last Tuesday since I have received a letter and I can hardly restrain my impatience to know what is going on in Mobile. Three papers received on Thursday from Father, assured me that the enemy had not landed on the coast as I had heard, but I think there must be some confusion and something going

Choctaw Cy. Jan 30th/64

My dear sister,

Saturday morning general-ly finds me with something to do. After breakfast, I looked over a Mobile paper of the 23<sup>d</sup> belonging to Dr. Burns, then washed out some little things and did some odd jobs about the room read a little in Moliere, and when I have finished this letter, have to run the hoops into my skirt.

The weather is mild and delightful the air is full of birds and in the distance I hear the mournful note of the dove. Everything seems to betoken the near approach of spring, but the gathering clouds give warning of a storm bringing probably, cold weather in its train.

It was a week last Tuesday since I have received a letter and I can hardly restrain my impatience to know what is going on in Mobile. Three papers received on Thursday from Father, assured me that the enemy had not landed on the coast as I had heard, but I think there must be some confusion and something going

[Sideways at left, continued from page 4]

If Father could come up he can have a good deal of the money due me to get him some provisions. I want to send down though to get me a calico dress and some books for the children.

I presume prices will go down in anticipation of an attack.

Give my love to Olivia and all friends.

I will write again as soon as I receive a letter
E. D. S.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 100330

Date: January 30, 1864

Description: Eunice Sewall on food supplies, war, Choctaw County, Alabama me or some one would write to me.

I was very much disappointed at not receiving the books, we need them so much, I still hope that they will come on tomorrow's boat. Mr. Cartin wrote to Mrs. Deloach since his return sending some medicines he purchased, but did not say where they were delivered my letter or saw Father. He said the place was in great confusion in anticipation of an attack. He had money of Mrs. D's and was to pay Father for the books. I wish I could get some provisions to send you, if you are going to have a siege they will be needed - If I had sacks, I think I could get corn and peas, the trouble is in getting things hauled to the river and having some one to look after them. The Depot agent at Timpkins-ville has a poor reputation for honest-ty. I do wish Father could come up he could return within a week. I heard Jimmy tell his mother the other day, he wouldn't sell any more corn under two dollars a bushel, but that is probably much cheaper than in Mobile. Mrs. D. received a letter from Mrs. La. V. on Thursday telling of the safe arrival of the things but whether Father had called for the butter or not, she did not say.

on or some one would write to me.
I was very much disappointed at not
receiving the books, we need them so much. I still hope that they will
come on tomorrow's boat. Mr. Cartin
wrote to Mrs. Deloach since his return
sending some medicines he purchased, but did not say whether he delivered
my letter or saw Father. He said the place was in great confusion in anticipation of an attack. He had money of Mrs. D's and was to pay Father for the books. I wish I could get some provisions to send you,
if you are going to have a siege they will be needed - If I had sacks, I think I could get corn and peas. The trouble is in getting things hauled to the river
and having some one to look after
them. The Depot agent at Timpkins-ville has a poor reputation for honest-
ty. I do wish Father could come up, he could return within a week. I heard Jimmy tell his mother the other day, he
wouldn't sell any more corn under
two dollars a bushel, but that is probably
much cheaper than in Mobile. Mrs. D. received a letter from Mrs. La. V. on Thursday telling of the safe arrival of the things
but whether Father had called for the
butter or not, she did not say.

Tommy drove up the sheep this forenoon. There were five little lambs in the flock but, they looked very pretty <sup>but</sup> not as well. Mrs. D. says as when they are a little older. We had quite an amusing time penning them up in a corner and trying to catch the little lambs, we got one and the little neither struggled nor made the least noise, but when all got away there were bleatings and loud indignation.

That party that you were disappointed in not hearing about afforded little material of interest to tell about. I dressed myself very nicely in my light silk &c, and sat in one seat near the fire all the evening - had some conversation with one gentleman and returned home about nine o'clock. I wrote Mrs. Johnson a full description of it and thought that as much as it deserved. It such an old story now, I don't care to go back to it but will try and do better next time.

Mr. Christopher left this morning for Demopolis.

Monday Morn - It has been raining hard all the morning but there is a streak of clear sky in the North. I dreamed last night that I was at home and that Sammy was very ill with typhoid Tommy drove up the sheep this forenoon. There were five little lambs in the flock, <sup>but</sup> but they looked very pretty ^ not as well, Mrs. D. says as when they are a little older. We had quite an amusing time penning them up in a corner and trying to catch the little lambs, we got one and the little neither struggled nor made the least noise, but when all got away, there were bleatings and loud indignation.

That party that you were disappointed in not learning about afforded little material of interest to tell about. I dressed myself very nicely in my light silk &c, and sat in one seat near the fire all the evening - had some conversation with one gentleman and returned home about nine o'clock. I wrote Mrs. Johnson a full description of it and thought that as much as it deserved. It such an old story now, I don't care to go back to it but will try and do better next time.

Mr. Christopher left this morning for Demopolis.

Monday morn -

It has been raining hard all the morning but there is a streak of clear sky in the North. I dreamed last night that I was at home and that Sammy was very ill with typhoid

Pneumonia. I spent a quiet but happy day in the house yesterday. The grass in the yard is beginning to look very green and so is the wheat patch. Our visit to Mrs. May was postponed, Mrs. D. felt so badly about her brother's leaving that we gave it up. Mr. C. came back yesterday evening on learning that the Cavalry at Demopolis were to join Morgan and that none would be accepted except in his command. In Jones Cy. Miss. there is a company in favor of peace, they have resisted the cavalry and are driving every one <sup>out</sup> of the county who is in favor of prosecuting the war, pillaging and taking possession of their property. A family have arrived in this neighborhood who were driven away by them, I do not see what the country is coming to. Dissensions seem to multiply.

We have been reading "Alone" the past week, by M. Harland. It is an interesting and excellent work, well worth a perusal. My scholars give me little trouble as regards discipline. As to improving their use of language, I almost despair, all of the good people with whom they associate have so many of the same errors that they can hardly be expected to see the importance of doing better. I long to hear from Anne, trust this will find you all well. I will write to Ellen next. I thought several times yesterday of Arthur saying "Ma me can ba' a ginger cake"? little darling, kiss him, give much love to all the others. Believe that you dear L. are greatly missed by your loving sister Eunice pneumonia. I spent a quiet but happy day in the house yesterday. The grass in the yard is beginning to look very green and so is the wheat patch. Our visit to Mrs. May was postponed, Mrs. D. felt so badly about her brother's leaving that we gave it up. Mr. C. came back yesterday evening on learning that the Cavalry at Demopolis were to join Morgan and that none would be accepted except in his command. In Jones Cy. Miss. there is a company in favor of peace, they have resisted the cavalry and are driving every one <sup>out</sup> of the county who is in favor of prosecuting the war, pillaging and taking possession of their property. A family have arrived in this neighborhood who were driven away by them. I do not see what the country is coming to. Dissensions seem to multiply -

We have been reading "Alone" the past week, by M. Harland. It is an interesting and excellent work, well worth a perusal. My scholars give me little trouble as regards discipline. As to improving their use of language, I almost despair. All of the grown people with whom they associate have so many of the same errors that they can hardly be expected to see the importance of doing better. I long to hear from home, trust this will find you all well. I will write to Ellen next. I thought several time yesterday of Arthur saying "Ma me can ba' a ginger cake"? little darling, kiss him, give much love to all the others. Believe that you dear L. are greatly missed by

Your loving sister
Eunice