

Somers
Surveyor's Office,
CITY HALL,
New Orleans, May 1st 1865.
"Dear Friend Somers"
Yours of the 17th ult. was received to day, for which you may well suppose I was waiting very anxiously, and for which I am very ~~comfor~~ thankful. In my last I stated that the capture of Mobile was but a rumor but it has since been confirmed. Canby - the hero of that capture was in this city a few days ago, after having taken possession of said city. you say your Father will soon arrive. I shall be glad to see him, and proud of his acquaintance, according to your description of him - I shall look for a very venerable, fatherly, respectable, honorable and kind old Gentleman, in that case I shall not be at a loss how to conduct myself in his presence; The news about here is about the same as yours, in the midst of rejoicing at the capture of Richmond, and Gen'l Lee, and the booming of cannon, of which

Surveyor's Office,
City Hall
New Orleans, May 1st 1865

"Dear Friend Somers"

Yours of the 17th ult. was received to day, for which you may well suppose I was waiting very anxiously, and for which I am very ~~comfor~~ thankful. In my last, I stated that the capture of Mobile was but a rumor but it has since been confirmed. Canby - the hero of that capture was in this city a few days ago, after having taken possession of said city. you say your Father will soon arrive. I shall be glad to see him, and proud of his acquaintance, according to your description of him - I shall look for a very venerable, fatherly, respectable, honorable and kind old Gentleman, in that case I shall not be at a loss how to conduct myself in his presence; The news about here is about the same as yours, in the midst of rejoicing at the capture of Richmond, and Gen'l Lee, and the booming of cannon, of which

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society MMN # 100332
Date: May 1, 1865
Description: Letter on end of war, Lincoln's death, New Orleans they fired 200 shots successively in the Lafayette Square, in honor of the success of Union Arms, the very sad news of the Assassination of our Beloved President and Secretary of State arrived, and then all rejoicing was done away with. Business was closed for the day and Stores, Public Buildings, and almost every house in the city was more or less draped, and there prevailed throughout the entire City, such a mourning as was never known since the days of Washington, most of the citizens wore crape on their arms, and the people wore sorrowful and dejected countenances, and many of the most "Secesh inclined" People, spoke of

"Honest old Abe's" loss with the profoundest sorrow, it seems that that he was loved even by his enemies, for I am very well acquainted with several Sympathizers of the C.S.A. and they expressed their sorrow, at his death as much as if he were a Father, you know yourself that the majority of the population

they fired 200 shots successively in the Lafayette Square, in honor of the success of Union Arms, the very sad news of the assassination of our Beloved President
and Secretary of State – arrived, and then all rejoicing was done away with. Business was ^ closed for the day, and Stores, Public Buildings, and almost every house in the City was more or less draped, and there
prevailed throughout the entire City, such
a mourning as was never known since
the days of Washington. most of the
citizens wore crape on their arms, and they the people wore sorrowful and de= jected countenances, and many of the most "Secesh inclined" People, spoke of
"Honest old Abe's" loss with the profoundest
sorrow, it seems that that he was loved even
by his enemies, for I am very well acquainted
with several sympathizers of the C.S.A. and
they expressed their sorrow, at his death as much as if he were a Father, you know
yourself that the majority of the population of this city are confederates, yet my heart beat with joy to see almost every building Public & Private, more or less elaborately draped.

Canal Street was draped from one end to the other, all the flags were at half mast throughout the city, being tied about with crape — the "Times" office bore the mottoe — "It is sweet & honorable to die for one's country". Saturday the 22nd inst was set apart as a day of fasting & prayer, in consequence of the sad news, Per Proclamation from Headquarters. All Buisness both Public & Private was suspended, not a coffee house — Grocery, Grog shop or ho[^]el to be seen open, but all closed and draped, a platform was erected in the Lafayette Square, and Speeches made to suit the occasion, among others on the platform could be seen Gen^{ls} Hurlbut, Banks & Canby (who had just returned from Mobile) all of which made speeches, The colored populace turned out very strong, The Whites also, all walking the streets in silence, and wearing dejected & sorrowful countenances, The

of this city are confederates, yet my heart
beat with joy to see almost every building Public and Private, more or less elaborately draped.
Canal Street was draped from one End to the other, all the flags were at half mast
throughout the city, being tied about with
crape — the "Times" office bore the mottoe
— "It is sweet & honorable to die for one's country" —. Saturday the 22nd inst was
set apart as a day of fasting & prayer, in consequence of the sad news, Per Proclamation
from Headquarters. All Buisness both Public & Private was suspended, not a Coffee House — Grocery, Grog shop or ho[^]el to be seen open, but
all closed and draped, a platform was erected
in the Lafayette Square, and Speeches made
to suit the occasion, among others on the platform could be seen Gen^{ls} Hurlbut, Banks & Canby (who had just returned from Mobile) all of which made speeches, The colored populace
turned out very strong, The Whites also, all
walking the streets in silence, and wearing
dejected & sorrowful countenances, The

Firemen also "turned out," marching the Streets with slow and measured steps, in fact every sign, and thing, showed that Abraham Lincoln, The honest old Pres't, was truly and feelingly lamented, his death is Spoken of by everybody, as the greatest calamity that could have happened this Nation, at this crisis, —

However there is one consolation for true Union people, and that is, that the Confederacy is going to "Kersmash" as fast as it can go. — God's will be done.
Excuse this writing, as I wrote in a great hurry —

Ever your "Friend"
Peter Huder
City Surveyor's Office —
Lock Box 179 —

{ I am in good health }

Peter Huder
May 1st 1863

Firemen also "turned out," marching the Streets with slow and measured steps, in
fact every sign, and thing, showed that
Abraham Lincoln, The honest old Pres't
was truly and feelingly lamented, his death
is Spoken of by everybody, as the greatest
calamity that could have happened this Nation, at this crisis, —

However there is one consolation for
true Union people, and that is, that the Confederacy is going to "Kersmash" as fast as it can go. — God's will be done.
Excuse this writing, as I wrote in a great
hurry --

Ever your "Friend"

Peter Huder

City Surveyor's Office —

Lock Box 179 —

{ I am in good health }