

Water in cellar ll months of the year. buildings in glod condition, 1 side of the barn plain boards.

A lot or parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated on the West side of Portland Street, so called known as the Tryphena Knox Homestead: Bounded easterly by said Portland Street, Northerly by the homestead premises of May A. March formerly owned by Armond L. Hoyt, westerly by land of said March, formerly owned by Irving H. Douglass and southerly by Pheobe Martin homestead premises that was or now owned or occupied by Victor Beam.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Bridgton Historical Society

MMN # 100394

Date: 1930s Bridgton Tax Records
Location: 11 Portland Street, Bridgton
Owner: John W. Keen and Lucy F. Keen
Use: Single family house