Friend Gardner
We received your letter a long time since and should have answered it before but I have been very sick all Summer and Almon has been so busy that he could not write I have got a little girl, four months old. That is for the first item of news, next I'll see what else I can think of. Well, Varney Simon Moses, Joe White Libby, Joe Harmon & Henry Merrill, all went in the army last fall, Irving Harmon & Loraine too, Henry Merrill went in the 9th regiment and is not at Fernandina Fla.
The rest went in the 12th regiment and are now at New Orleans except Varney and Joe Libby, they arrived home about three weeks ago. Lon Harmon is married to Cornelia Merrill and lives to his father's. Jane Demott, is at Saccarappa, so I suppose you can direct your letters to her at that place. I hope you are well Gardner and enjoying a soldier's life. We would all like to see you, & when you come home you will come here of course. You must be careful about who you associate with for I suppose there are a great many bad fellows in the army. Take good care of your self as you can, and take care of your money too. So when you come home you will have something to buy you a farm if you should want one. Almon and I have always been friends to you and are the same now and we want you to be a good fellow and come home as soon as the war is over which we hope will be before long. Write to us and tell us how you get along, and if you have heard from Jane. I did not know where she was until a few days ago so did not send the letter to her. I am glad she has got away, for she is a good girl I think. I am a friend to her and want her to come and see me. I do not think of any thing more to write so good bye Yours &c,

Clara A. Moses
Almon send his best respects to you, & wants you to write him and he will answer you sooner next time.
