

From the encouragement given me by Col. Burr, I have waited with the most anxious impatience for the promised visit of my very esteemed friend Col. Wadsworth. He, so kindly interesting himself in my favour inspires me with a confidence in his friendship, which affords me unspeakable pleasure, and heightens my wish to see him. Expressions of gratitude and thanks are faint returns; I will not attempt them, sensible the satisfaction of assisting the friendless is more gratifying to the benevolent mind of my friend, than all the words I can offer. — I am pleasing myself with the hope of becoming your neighbour, by moving to Weathersfield, — as it was M' Webb's proposal I have written him on the subject — The scheme has many attractions, but the weight of some circumstances weaken their force — I shall defer a decision until I see you — Your judgement must determine my conduct — The Bearer M' Bagra will return immediately — Let me hear from you of when I may expect you? — I have taken the liberty to enclose a list of a few articles which I hope it will be no inconveniency to you to procure — I would apologize, but am confident your goodness will find a better excuse than I can offer — Make my best regards acceptable to M^{rs} Wadsworth mingled with that esteem so near a connexion to you will ever command from Your obliged & grateful friend
