

Newbury-Port 23^d Oct: 1782

Dr Sir,

John Tyng Esquire of Dunstable, in a late Gazette has advertised for sale a farm of his, containing three or four hundred acres, lying in Biddeford - Mr Tyng lives out of the common course of travelling, and we have not many direct opportunities of getting a Letter that way, from your reputed acquaintance with that Gentleman's affairs, I suppose it not improbable, that you may be informed of his Determination concerning this farm - In behalf of a kinsman of mine, I am desirous of knowing the Terms on which it may be purchased - Doctr Porter of Biddeford who is a Brother in Law of mine, would purchase, if the Terms are such as will suit his interest - If by any means you are able to communicate the information desired, by placing it in my power to serve my brother, you will essentially oblige, Dr Sir

Your very humbl^t Serv^t

Rufus King

John Lowell Esq^r

Newbury-Port 23d Octr 1782

Dr Sir,

John Tyng Esquire of Dunstable, in a late Gazette has advertised for sale a farm of his, containing three or four hundred acres, lying in Biddeford - Mr Tyng lives out of the common course of travelling, and we have not many direct opportunities of getting a Letter that way, from your reputed acquaintance with that Gentleman's affairs, I suppose it not improbable, that you may be informed of his Determination concerning this farm - In behalf of a kinsman of mine, I am desirous of knowing the Terms on which it may be purchased - Doctr Porter of Biddeford who is a Brother in Law of mine, would purchase, if the Terms are such as will suit his interest - If by any means you are able to enumerate the information desired, by placing it in my power to serve my brother, you will essentially oblige, Dr Sir

Your very humbl Servt

Rufus King

John Lowell Esqr

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Biddeford Historical Society

MMN # 102141
 Date: October 23, 1782
 Description: Rufus King on a Biddeford farm for sale, Newburyport