

New York May 6th 1789

Sir

I received your letter of the 29th of April I find there are different opinions about the rates of duties agreed to by Congress.
 I received a letter from Mr Webster from Philadelphia who writes that the duties are much too low on Rum, wines and molasses, and that all the merchants in that city which he has conversed with on the subject are of the same opinion & even the principal importers of those articles, That in his opinion ^{the duties on} Rum & other Spirits & wines ought to have been trebled or at least doubled. experience will best prove whether it can be collected, honest men will not try to evade it, and others must be strictly watched over. Molas would not have been rated quite so high were not so much distilled into rum --- I enclose you the two last papers which contain all the news.

and am with respect
 Yours to serve
 Roger Sherman

I intend to apply for the two first papers, but have not had opportunity to do it yet.

Simeon Baldwin Esq^r

New York May 6th 1789

Sir

I received your letter of the 29th of April
 I find there are different opinions about
 the rates of duties agreed to by Congress
 I received a letter from Mr Webster from Philadelphia
 who writes that the duties are much too low on Rum, wines and molasses, and that all the
 merchants in that city which he has conversed with on the subjects are of the same opinion & even the principal importers of those articles, That
 in his opinion ^{the duties on} Rum & other Spirits & wines
 ought to have been trebled or at least doubled.
 experience will best prove whether it can be
 collected, honest men will not try to evade it, and
 others must be strictly watched over. Molas
 would not have been rated quite so high were
 not so much distilled into rum--- I enclose you
 the two last papers which contain all the news.

and am with respect
 yours to serve
 Roger Sherman

I intend to apply for the two first papers, but
 have not had opportunity to do it yet.

Simeon Baldwin Esq.^r