

In Congress 20th Sept. 1779.

Resolved,

That it is expedient and necessary to detach the North Carolina troops now at, or near West Point, to join the troops under the Command of Major general Lincoln in South Carolina; and that the pleasure of Congress be signified thereon to the Commander in Chief.

That three of the Continental Frigates or Ships of War, now in the Port of Boston or elsewhere in the eastern States, be ordered to repair to South Carolina with all possible expedition; after having received on board at such place, as the Marine Committee shall appoint, as many of the North Carolina troops with Horses and Baggage as the said Frigates or Ships of War can safely accommodate, and taking under their protection one or more transport or transports if necessary, to be employed for conducting such of the said troops and necessary Horses for the Voyage, as the three Frigates or Ships of War cannot conveniently receive or take on board.

Resolved, That the Marine
Com.

In Congress 20th Sept. 1779.

Resolved,

That it is expedient and necessary to detach the North Carolina troops now at, or near West Point, to join the troops under the Command of Major general Lincoln in South Carolina, and that the pleasure of Congress be signified there on to the Commander in Chief. _____

That three of the Continental Frigates or Ships of War, now in the Port of Boston or elsewhere in the eastern States, be ordered to repair to South Carolina with all possible expedition, after having received on board at such place. as the Marine Committee shall appoint, as many of the North Carolina troops with [ ] and baggage as the paid Frigates or Ships of War can safely accommodate, and taking under their protection one of more transport or transports if necessary, to be employed for conducting such of the laid troops and necessary [ ] for the Voyage, as the three Frigates or Ships of War cannot conveniently receive or take on board.

Resolved, That the Marine
Com.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 102193

Date: September 20, 1779

Description: Resolution in Congress by Charles Thomson

Committee be directed immediately to take order for hiring such transports as shall be found necessary, and for dispatching the said Frigates or Ships of War with their Convoy without delay. —

That the Commander in Chief be directed to order the North Carolina troops to proceed to such place or places as the Marine Committee shall advise. —

That the Marine Committee be directed to give orders to the Commanding Officer of the Frigates or Ships of War going to South Carolina to confer and co-operate with Major General Lincoln or the Commanding Officer for the time being, till further orders from the Marine Committee. —

That the said Commanding Officer be directed to confer on all Naval Operations with the Governor and executive Council of the State of South Carolina and that it be recommended to the said State to afford every practicable and necessary aid and assistance for promoting and effectuating such purposes. —

Extract from the Minutes,
Ch Thomson

Committee be directed immediately to take order for hiring such transports as shall be found necessary, and for dispatching the paid Frigates or Ships of War with their Convoy without delay. —

That the Commander in Chief directed to order the North Carolina troops to proceed to such place or places as the Marine Committee shall advise. —

That the Marine Committee be directed to give order to the Commanding Officer of the Frigates or Ships of War going to South Carolina to confer and co-operate with Major General Lincoln or the Commanding Officer for the time being, till further orders from the Marine Committee. —

That the paid Commanding Officer to be directed to confer on all Naval Operations with the Governor and executive Council of the State of South Carolina and that it be recommended to the said State to afford[?] every practicable and necessary aid and assistance for promoting and effectuating such purposes. —

Extract from the minutes,
Ch Thomson