

For a young woman in phthisis pulmonalis.
 Some pills of opium, purpurea Digitalis, & gum arabic; the proportion of opium not very considerable on account of the next article; giving one pill in the morning, another in the afternoon.
 Antimonial wine 3 parts, laudanum 2 parts; taking 20 drops of the mixture in the morning, & 30 at night.
 Elixir of vitriol, 15 or 20 drops at night according as the sweats prevail.
 Cream of tartar & flowers of sulphur to be used; whenever costiveness occurs; being taken in melasses.

To be taken in water.

For Miss Elizabeth Atkins of Mount Vernon. Oct. 19, 1802.

To be taken in / water.

For a young woman in phthisis pulmonalis

Some pills of opium, purpurea digitalis, + gum / arabic; the proportion of opium not very / considerable on account of the next ar- / ticle; giving one pill in the morning; another in the / afternoon ^ . / Antimonial wine 3 parts, laudanum 2 parts; / taking 20 drops of the mixture in / the morning, + 30 at night. / Uluxuir [elixir] of vitriol, 15 or 20 drops at night / according as the sweats prevail. / Cream of tartar + flower of sulphur to / be used; whenever costiveness occurs; being / taken in melasses.

For Miss Elizabeth Atkins of Mount Vernon
 Oct 19, 1802.