

Ticonderoga June 9th 1777
Dear mother these few lines Comes with my duty to you to let you know that i am well ^{at present} and hope that these few lines will find you the same I reseived your letter by Job Lunt and was very glacte that you was well we arived here the fifth day of april and are Stationd at the old fort in good barracks at present our men is most of them well and we have good lowence but things are very dear Scarce I want see you very much and would be glad that you would write to me at every oportunity and I will do the same we have not reseived any of our traveling fees and was obligd to come up upon our own mony we have recived but two months wages yet I have nothing Strange to write ^{at present} remember me to all my frinds and relations and sonomore but remain dutifull Son till Death
William Bayley

Ticonderoga June 9th 1777 ~

Dear mother these few lines Comes with my duty at

to you to let you know that i am well ^ present and hope that these few lines will find you the same I reseived your letter by Job Lunt and was very glad to hear that you was well we arived here the fifth day of april and are Stationd at the old fort in
good barracks at present our men is most of them
well and we have good lowence but things
are very dear Scarce I want see you very much
and would be glad that you would write to me
at every oportunity and I will do the same
we have not reseived any of our traveling
fees and was obligd to come up upon our own
mony we have recived but two months wages at present yet I have nothing. Strange to write ^ remember me to all my frinds and relations and sonomore

but remain dutifull Son till Death

William Bayley

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by the Maine Historical Society

(Local Code: Coll. 64, Box 2, fl. 5)

Date: June 9, 1777

Description: Letter from William Bayley to his mother, Jean Bayley.