

Boston Sept 22^d 1847

My dear wife

I have made a selection of a dress shall and muff and forwarded it by express, and also my miniature, I have received my watch by Mr Carpenter I leave this afternoon Olive also, The dress nine yards was 1,12 1/2 per yd, the shall 12,50, the muff I shall purchase immediately, I thought that you deserved as good articles as any other person, I feel very lonesome but it is of no use to think about it, tell C, Henry that I felt very sorry to leave him and miss him very much, Write to New-York and let me know if you receive your things, Tell C.H. that I want him to write and that I will write him from New-York your affectionate Husband

John Davison

Let Capt Ellis have that money and he can give you his note for it, You can pay five dollars for our minister tax pay it to Mr Bacon I think is the name of the man.

Boston Sept 22^d 1847

My Dear wife

I have made a selection of a dress shall and muff and forwarded it by express, and also my miniature, I have received my watch by Mr Carpenter I leave this afternoon Olive also, the dress nine yards was 1,12 1/2 per yard, the shall 12,50, the muff I shall purchase immediately. I thought that you deserved as good articles as any other person, I feel very lonesome but it is of no use to think about it. Tell C, Henry that I feel very sorry to leave him and miss him very much, Write to New-York and let me know if you receive your things, Tell C.H. that I want him to write and that I will write him from New-York your affectionate Husband

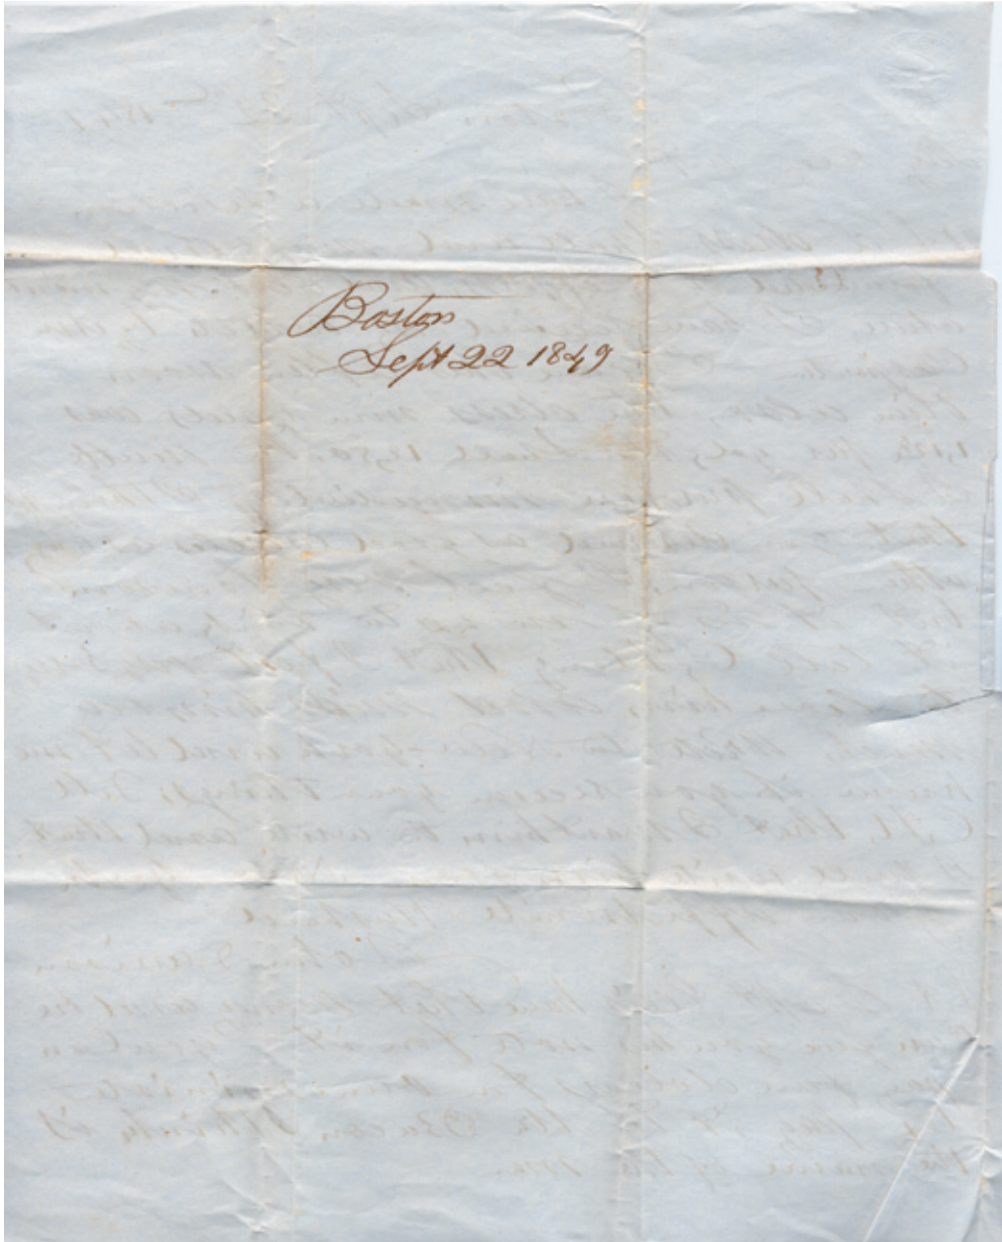

John Davison

Let Capt Ellis have that money and he can give you his note for it. You can pay five dollars for our minister tax pay it to Mr Bacon I think is the name if the man.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society
(Coll. 88, Box 1/1)

Date: Sept. 22, 1847

Description: Letter from John Davison to Eliza Ann Davison, his wife, written in Boston, Massachusetts.

Boston

Sept 22 1849

[postmark]
BOSTON
23
SEP
5

[page torn] Ann Davison
[page torn] gusta