

712 Chapman Bldg.
Portland, Me. Nov. 12 - 1935.

Mr. Arthur R. Rogers
Jonesport, Maine.

My dear Mr. Rogers:

When I saw in the Portland Telegram the story as told by you of that ill fated journey to Jaffa, it brought to my mind so vividly the scenes of my childhood when I handled and marvelled at many things that had come from Palestine!

My grandmother, Mrs. Eli B. Lord, West Lebanon Maine, had a sister whose name was Clark; she had, with her husband and two sons, Herbert and Frank, years before, joined an expedition which doubtless was the same one altho I never heard the name of the leader nor where they sailed from.

She never could face the ridicule that she felt she would be subjected to and so she stayed on. Some time later she married a man whom I suspect was a Jew and who was fairly educated. From that time on she and her husband came to visit this country at infrequent intervals.

Herbert became the foremost authority on the Holy Land and was recognized as such and given signal honors- he dined many times with King Edward who was then Prince of Wales. Frank is as far as I know still alive and doing business in New York City.

712 Chapman Bldg.
Portland, Me. Nov. 12 - 1935

Mr. Arthur R. Rogers
Jonesport, Maine.

My dear Mr. Rogers:

When I saw in the Portland Telegram the story as told by you of that ill fated journey to Jaffa, it brought to my mind so vividly the scenes of my childhood when I handled and marvelled at many things that had come from Palestine.

My grandmother, Mrs. Eli B. Lord, West Lebanon Maine, had a sister whose name was Clark; she had, with her husband and two sons, Herbert and Frank, years before, joined an expedition which doubtless was the same one altho I never heard the name of the leader nor where they sailed from.

She never could face the ridicule that she felt she would be subjected to and so she stayed on. Some time later she married a man whom I suspect was a Jew and who was fairly educated. From that time on she and her husband came to visit this country at infrequent intervals.

Herbert became the foremost authority on the Holy Land and was recognized as such and given signal honors- he dined many times with King Edward who was then Prince of Wales. Frank, is as far as I know still alive and doing business in New York City.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by the Maine Historical Society
(Local Code: Coll. 1976)
Creation Date: Nov. 12, 1935
Description: Letter from Miss Mable Lord to Arthur Rogers about the Jaffa Colony in Israel.

2

It is strange the way our lives are woven together - here I am an unmarried woman (old maid) of 58, who sells life insurance for Phoenix Mutual Life Ins. Co., writing to you and picking up threads in your life which were started to make a pattern so many years ago!

Some day if you have time when you are in Portland, do come in to see me in my office - you will find nowhere a more sincere welcome!

Looking forward then to seeing you
I am

Most sincerely yours
(Miss) Mabel L. Lord.

It's strange the way our lives are woven together - here am I an unmarried woman (old maid) of 58, who sells life insurance for Phoenix Mutual Life Ins. Co., writing to you and picking up threads in your life which were started to make a pattern so many years ago!

Some day if you have time when you are in Portland, do come in to see me in My office - you will find nowhere a more sincere welcome.

Looking forward then to seeing you
I am

Most sincerely yours
(Miss) Mabel L. Lord.

RED CROSS
ROLL CALL
JOIN

Mr. Arthur R. Rogers
Jonesport
Maine