- More than 25 Scientific Expeditions from all parts of the world have selected this territory as the BEST section to make observations.
- "Eclipse Special" leaves Portland 11.15 A.M. (Eastern Standard Time) for Fryeburg, North Conway and Bartlett, returning after the Eclipse, and fares are so low from your station you cannot afford to miss this spectacle of a life time.
- Fryeburg will have a band concert, midways and other forms of entertainment to amuse eclipse viewers while they await the spectacle. Observations will be made from planes. Moving Pictures will be taken. Probable balloon ascension.
- The Columbia Broadcasting System will describe the eclipse from Conway Center, N. H.
- Chances for a cloudless afternoon are more than 50 per cent better in the Fryeburg-Conway region than along the coast.
- The eclipse will begin at 2.20 P.M. (Eastern Standard Time). At this time the moon's shadow will commence creeping over the face of the sun. The period of totality will begin at 3.28 P.M. (Eastern Standard Time) and will last for 99 seconds. The eclipse will end at 4.33 P.M.
