about Rosewell - which escaped in though time enough, as a matter of fact - it would not do for a woman's magazine. It refers to the Lights of the Chinese.

I have been trying to get a copy of the last and best because oldest of the inveterate litinay. That have been made of me by the Photographer. - but the man is off - and may will give Mr. Sherwood to lend you a copy. If I had another I should not say lend If you do not soon hear of it - please send to the house or office 142 Broadway. It was clever - hard and se[?] - and makes me a wantal of France - but I tell & everybody cries out at the resemblance (myself being the number 1) I have not a word to say.

Now see Sidney is here - or was yesterday - my wife & I have agreed, whenever a fine visit to the wife Habre's - but the weather & accident have prevented this far. Shall do it soon - and succesfully finally.

Don't over work yourself.

By the way, when I was last in N.
Y. Mrs. A. S. Salsbury - an old & dear friend of mine - got me engaged to send her for publication ten items of my ancient affairs,
- I sent a bushel; but don't know if they have yet appeared.
I mention this that you may understand the mystery.
Beware! - you are [?] Yours truly
