

April 27 - 44

S.P. 7.

My darling boy just a few lines this lovely morning, we are all O.K. and hope these few lines find you the same it's now 7 a.m. and I have a big iron to do, painted Vivian's room yesterday, you see it's spring, and I have the painting fever I haven't heard from Uncle Ellis yet, so I don't know, if he will come up or not but I hope he can. Byron is home on a leave, he and Uncle Clark plans on going up Sat. so you see how fast I must work to get a place for them to sleep in,
you see I got started before I knew they
was coming up, I have to iron, cook, settle Vivian's room and go in town Sat.
morning, gess I'll have to step on the gas a little harder. I just droped Mrs Butler a card as she is sick in bed, and Eveyln is plaining on moving up on her

April 27 - 44

S.P.7.

My darling boy just a few lines
this lovely morning. We are all O.K. and hope these few lines find's you the same it's now 7 a.m. and I have a big iron to
do. painted Vivian's room yesterday. you
see it's spring. and I have the painting fever
I haven't heard from Uncle Ellis yet. so I don't know, if he will come up or not
but I hope he can. Byron is home on a leave, he and Uncle Clark plans on going up Sat. so you see how fast I must
work to get a place for them to sleep in,
you see I got started before I knew they
was coming up, I have to iron, cook,
settle Vivian's room and go in town Sat.
morning. gess I'll have to step on the gas
a little harder. I just droped Mrs. Butler
a card as she is sick in bed, and Eveyln is planing on mov'g up on her

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

(Coll. 2133, Series 1, Box 1/4)

Date: Apr. 27, 1944

Description: Letter from Grace Hustus to son

