

By JOSIAH FLAGG,
Surgeon Dentist,

TEETH { CLEANSED and healed from all scorbutick complaints ;
Cured from ulcers, and the gums made sound,
Drawn and transplanted, without pain or harm to the patient ;
If defective, repaired and made serviceable ;
Cured from aching without drawing ;
If loose, fastened and made strong.
Roots and Stumps extracted with ease.

Artificial Teeth made and set, with or without roots, to be useful and ornamental.

N. B. Persons unable to pay, will have their Teeth cured or extracted gratis.

TEETH BRUSHES and warranted DENTI-FRICE for sale.

Miniature Painting,

And real HAIR DEVICES for Locketts, Bracelets, Rings, &c. done by said FLAGG—who engages to give perfect satisfaction in all the above branches, or no pay will be required.—He may be spoken with at General Wadsworth's; and will wait on Ladies and Gentlemen at their houses, on the shortest notice

Portland, August 27, 1789.

By JOSIAH FLAGG,
Surgeon Dentist

[TEETH sideways on left]

CLEANSED and healed form all scorbutick complaints;
Cured from ulcers, and the gums made sound,
Drawn and transplanted, without pain or harm to the patient;
If defective repaired and made serviceable;
Cured from aching without drawing;
If loose, fastened and made strong.
Roots and stumps extracted with ease.
Artificial Teeth made and set, with or without roots, to be useful and ornamental.
N.B. Persons unable to pay, will have their Teeth cured or extracted gratis.
TEETH BRUSHES and warranted DENTI-FRICE for sale.

Miniature Painting,

And real HAIR DEVICES for Locketts, Bracelets, Rings, &c. done by said FLAGG — who engages to give perfect satisfaction in all the above branches, or no pay will be required — He may be spoken with at General Wadsworth's; and will wait on Ladies and Gentlemen at their houses, on the shortest notice
Portland, August 27, 1789

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society
(Coll. S-5778 Misc. 143/11)

Date: August 28, 1789

Description: Dentist, Josiah Flagg's advertisement in the newspaper the Cumberland Gazette.