My Dear Sarah
Your note
to your mother of the 9th inst reached here last eve.
I embrace the earliest opportunity to reply to your query when you shall stop in Boston.
The Quincy is a good guest house nearer to the Kennebec Boat than the U. S. although not very near — and there is no good house very near the Steamers Wharf as I am aware of — or you can go to the Tremont or I believe the Southern gentry used generally when they came North to spend their money stopped at the Revere

My Dear Sarah

Your note

inst reached here last eve.
I embrace the earliest opportunity to reply to your query where you shall stop in Boston.

As you and Gus have been some ways South I should think you would like to go there — I should like to have you go there and see the style although I never allowed myself to stop there — but I advise you and Gus to go — If you only stop one night it wont cost more than $1. more than some other place — And as you are out there to spend money and see the world I think that is decidedly the place for you & Gus. to go — It is very warm & fine hayweather I should finish haying this week if the weather continues favorable — Your Aunt

Eliza Kent returned from Boston on Sat last - highly delighted with Boston & the environs - So she and your mother will die wise as they have both visited the modern Athens.

Elizabeth
not the old English Queen but your illustrious sister left here a week ago last Saturday on a visit to Mr Roaks in to the town of Auburn, County of An droscoggin & State of Maine to spend one week but she has proved recreant to her promise and has not yet returned - I learn Mr R's hired girl has left & I suppose "Liz" is seeming the domestic machine

There is nothing talked of here but the invasion of Maryland by the Rebels.
I hope they will not get so far as Claverack or New York City for I should not like to have you & Golphus Captured and Carried down to Libby prison — Still should that be your fortune I hope you have wrote an elaborate description of what you see & hear there — I fear by the way you will get but few ice creams or sponge cakes dealt out in your rations and no rides to Freedson or any such fine city — but will be kept close in Richmond —
