

1445-

Go And See
EVERETT'S
GRAND
INDIAN EXHIBITION!

---

THE CELEBRATED
Menusco Company.

---

CHIEF
BIG THUNDER,
HIS WIFE
ALZOMA.

---

THE INDIAN CLOWN WONZO!

---

WILD BUFFALO!

---

The above Company would respectfully inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity, that encouraged by the liberal patronage they have been receiving in the principal Towns in this State, they will appear in their ORIGINAL COSTUME, and give one of their splendid Entertainments at

FRANKLIN HALL, Wiscasset,
THURSDAY Evening, March 13,

CONSISTING OF

War Songs, War Dances, War Whoop, Tomahawk Exercise, The Wondrous Rescue, Indian Stories, Indian manner of Courtship and Marriage, Mammoth Doctor or Medicine Man curing a sick patient, Ceremony of Electing a Chief, and Historical and Traditionary Scenes which are found in none of our present Histories, many of the ceremonies having been handed from generations beyond the knowledge of modern Historians.

This Company has exhibited in all the principal Towns and Villages throughout the United States, before LARGE and FASHIONABLE audiences, never failing to give satisfaction. In 1860, they filled an EIGHT MONTHS' ENGAGEMENT WITH BARNUM, at the American Museum in New York City, and were acknowledged the BEST PERFORMERS that ever appeared before an audience.

ADMISSION,	25 CENTS.
CHILDREN under 12 years,	15 CENTS.

Doors open at 7 o'clock. Performance to commence at 7.30.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society
(Coll 464, Box 4/1445)

Date: ca. 1870

Description: Notice for Indian exhibition, Wiscasset

Go And See
EVERETT'S
GRAND
INDIAN EXHIBITION!

---

THE CELEBRATED
Menusco Company

---

CHIEF
BIG THUNDER,
HIS WIFE
ALZOMA.

---

THE INDIAN CLOWN
WONZO!

---

WILD BUFFALO!

The above Company would respectfully inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity, that encouraged by the liberal patronage they have been receiving in the principal Towns in this State, they will appear in their ORIGINAL COSTUME, and give one of their splendid Entertainments at

FRANKLIN HALL, Wiscasset,
THURSDAY Evening, March 13,
CONSISTING OF

War Songs, War Dances, War Whoop, Tomahawk Exercise.
The Wondrous Rescue, Indian Stories, Indian manner of Courtship and Marriage.
Mammoth Doctor or Medicine Man curing a sick patient, Ceremony of Electing a Chief, and Historical and Traditionary Scenes which are found in none of our present Histories, many of the ceremonies having been handed from generations beyond the knowledge of modern Historians.

---

This Company has exhibited in all the principal Towns and Villages throughout the United States, before LARGE and FASHIONABLE audiences, never failing to give satisfaction. In 1860 they filled an EIGHT MONTHS' ENGAGEMENT WITH BARNUM, at the American Museum in New York City, and were acknowledged the BEST PERFORMERS that ever appeared before an audience.

---

ADMISSION, - - - - -	25 cents
CHILDREN under 12 years - - - - -	15 cents

Doors open at 7 o'clock. Performance to commence at 7.30.