

Boston June 10th 1841,
Mr. Pierce
Dear Sir,
Be pleased to accept my thanks for your kind invitation, contained in your letter of yesterday's date. I assure you it would give me great pleasure to accept it, but the extent of my engagements leaves me no option on the subject. My official labors require all my time, & more than all my strength. I am, to-day, beginning the Annual Abstract of the School Returns, & at the time you mention, I shall have a steam press roaring behind me. I must not only supply it with copy, but superintend its work from day to day.
Please to accept this as an apology

Dear Sir,

Be pleased to accept my thanks for your kind invitation, contained in your letter of yesterday's date. I assure you it would give me great pleasure to accept it, but the extent of my engagements leaves me no option on the subject. My official labors require all my strength. I am, to-day, beginning the annual Abstract of the School Returns, & at the time you mention, I shall have a steam press roaring behind me. I must not only supply it with copy, but superintend its work from day to day.

for a non-compliance with your
