

Recd. Sept 10,
York P^a Aug. 29th/64

Dear Judge,

Your favor of the 24th reached me yesterday. I thank you for your kind attention to my request. I think it is an imposition to furnish me a substitute so young and without experience in teaching. How will she do to take charge of the institution in case I should be sick? & besides it throws all the care on me. When your daughter was here she took charge where I was out & all went well. I wanted one of commanding influence. That will be wanting now. I blame no one but Miss Mc Lellan. She had no right to put in a young lady without experience and at the salary I offered Nancy, who —

[?] Sept 10,
York P^a Aug. 29th/64

Dear Judge,

Your favor of the 24th reached me yesterday. I thank you for your kind attention to my request. I think it is an imposition to furnish me a substitute so young and without experience in teaching. How will she do to take charge of the institution in case I should be sick? & besides it throws all the care on me. When your daughter was here she took charge when I was out & all went well. I wanted one of commanding influence. That will be wanting now. I blame no one but Miss Mc Lellan. She had no right to put in a young lady without experience and at the salary I offered Nancy, who — would be worth two of her in influence and confidence among the patrons.

We must make the best of it now, but I feel chafed. We shall however receive Miss Clark kindly and hope for the best.

One thing more I wish to
ask. What is the price of land with you? Do farms sell by the acre, or for so much in the lump? My son and I were talking about buying a farm in N—England. If the war should continue much longer, it will be desirable to be farther from the border.

Love to all the family and believe me truly
Yours.

Hon. J. Pierce

D. B. Prince

Aug. 29. 1864

D. B. Prince

would be worth two of her in
influence and confidence
among the patrons.

We must make the best of it
now, but I feel chafed. We shall
however receive Miss Clark
kindly and hope for the best.

One thing more I wish to
ask. What is the price of land
with you? Do farms sell by
the acre, or for so much in the
lump? My son and I were talking about buying a farm in N—
England. If the war should continue much longer, it will
be desirable to be farther
from the border.

Love to all the family and believe me truly

Yours.

D. B. Prince

Hon. J. Pierce

[upside down]