

My Dear George "Any letter for me by the Eastern mail." said I today for the fiftieth time, in the full expectation of receiving an answer to my last very brief epistle of seven pages - Now if you indeed consider such 'long yarns' a real bore and a good cause for cutting acquaintance, you ought frankly to have told me so, not furnish the evidence of such an opinion by throwing your pen in the fire & sealing up your ink-bottle - When Miss L. is in Portland, I would not be charged with the presumption of claiming any portion of your attention, but when she is absent (as I am advised she has been for the last five or six weeks) I looked upon it as a reasonable expectation, that you would send a stragling thought up among these hills - I doubt not you have recently been a close observer of the political movements in your own State, and in some of them undoubtedly have taken an active part - The proceedings of the Maine Legislature have drawn upon them the attention of people in every section of the Union, and present I apprehend a complete anomaly in the doings of Legislative bodies - Your Jackson men are certainly deserving all praise - Whether the people at large have been profited, they must themselves be the judges; but they is certain

My Dear George "Any letter for me by the Eastern mail." said I today for the fiftieth time, in the full expectation of receiving an answer to my last very brief epistle of seven pages - Now if you indeed consider such 'long yarns' a real bore and a good cause for cutting acquaintance, you ought frankly to have told me so, not furnish the evidence of such an opinion by throwing your pen in the fire & sealing up your ink bottle - When Miss L. is in Portland, I would not be charged with the presumption of claiming any portion of your attention, but when she is absent (as I am advised she has been for the last five or six weeks) I looked upon it as a reasonable expectation, that you would send a stragling thought up among these hills - I doubt not you have recently been a close observer of the political movements in your own State, and in some of them undoubtedly have taken an active part - The proceedings of the Maine Legislature have drawn upon them the attention of people in every section of the Union, and present I apprehend a complete anomaly in the doings of Legislative bodies - Your Jackson men are certainly deserving all praise - Whether the people at large have been profited, they must themselves be the judges; one thing is certain

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society
Date: March 2, 1830 Description: Franklin Pierce letter to George W. Pierce.

the scene must have been full of interest and instruction to young men, who like yourself are looking forward to political life. You have witnessed all the manoeuvring - let us know in what light you have viewed it - You will perceive by the paper which you will receive at the same time this reaches you, that our political contest, soon to be decided, is waged with much bitterness. Gen Uphams position before the public at this ~~moment~~<sup>moment</sup> must be anything but an enviable one. There is not, there cannot be, any doubt as to the genuineness of the "Stoodley correspondence" his denial of which created a great ferment for a few days. How he could have been induced to come out with such a denial I cannot imagine - His prospects never by any means flattering, are I believe now completely blighted - I have much to say to you - divers matters I wish to discuss - but shall defer them all, till about the middle of this month when I anticipate with the greatest confidence the pleasure of meeting you in Boston, only consider a single days ride! In the morning you step on board the Stage at Portland the same evening you find your quarters in the "Moral City," Is it right, that a little space should have separated us ever since 1826? I could lay before you many reasons why you should comply with the scene must have been full of interest and instruction to young men, who like yourself are looking forward to political life. You have witnessed all the manoeuvring - let us know in what light you have viewed it - You will perceive by the paper which you will receive at the same time this reaches you, that our political contest, soon to be decided, is waged with much bitterness. Gen Uphams

moment
position before the public at this [crossed out] ^ must be anything but an enviable one. There is not, there cannot be, any doubt as to the genuineness of the "Stoodley correspondence" his denial of which created a great ferment for a few days. How he could have been induced to come out with such a denial I cannot imagine - His prospects never by any means flattering, are I believe now completely blighted - I have much to say to you - divers matters I wish to discuss - but shall defer them all, till about the middle of this month when I anticipate with the greatest confidence the pleasure of meeting you in Boston, only consider a single days ride! In the morning you step on board the Stage at Portland the same evening you find your quarters in the "Moral City," Is it right, that a little space should have separated us ever since 1826? I could lay before you many reasons why you should comply with my wishes in consummating the proposed meeting — but they will suggest themselves at once to your mind with out any aid of mine — I only add therefore that health permitting (with a good share of which I am almost uniformly blessed) I shall be in Boston on the 13th 14th 15th & 16th of March <sup>inst.</sup> for the purpose of meeting and with the most confident expectation of meeting Geo.

W. Pierce a man whom of all others I most desire to see — I shall stop with Genl McNeil I think in Pearl St. you know with how much joy you would be received there. Shall call for you every day till I see you at the Tremont House — now lay aside that Law Book, that forthcoming Treatise — It is no time for calculation — Give us no apologies, but give us, you will give us the "light of your countenance" —
In the mean time let me hear from you — It grieves me much to learn as I did a few days since that Miss L's health is not good — but when I hear her spoken of as one "of the brightest gems in nature's Cabinet" I feel a sort of pride not easily expressed. All lips speak her praise — and from my knowledge of you I can aver the commendation is well merited "mine were nothing had I such to give"
Give my best regards to Fessenden — I am as ever very truly yours F

March 2<sup>d</sup> 1830

my wishes in consummating the proposed meeting —
but they will suggest themselves at once to your mind with out any aid of mine — I only add therefore that health permitting (with a good share of which I am almost uniformly blessed) I shall be in Boston on the inst.

13th 14th 15th & 16th of March ^ for the purpose of meeting and with the most confident expectation of meeting Geo.
W. Pierce a man whom of all others I most desire to see — I shall stop with Genl McNeil I think in Pearl St you know with how much joy you would be received there. Shall call for you every day ti(page torn) I see you at the Tremont House - now lay aside
that Law Book, that forthcoming Treatise — It is no time for calculation — Give us no apologies, but give us, you will give us the "light of your countenance" —
In the mean time let me hear from you - It
grieves me much to learn as I did a few days since that Miss L's health is not good — but when I hear her spoken of as one "of the brightest gems in nature's Cabinet" I feel a sort of pride not easily expressed. All lips speak her praise — and from my knowledge of you I can aver the commendation is well merited "mine were nothing had I such to give"
Give my best regards to Fessenden —

I am as ever very truly yours F

March 2<sup>d</sup>, 1830 —