

Dont be startled George, I have not come to afflict you with a letter. The evidence you have given of a disposition to close that concern, however blind
I would be for a time, cannot with propriety be longer disregarded. Nevertheless I am very desirous of seeing you. Will you meet me in Boston on the 18th inst I shall be there at that time —
Maine, has on the whole, done nobly —
I think there can be no doubt of the Generals
re-election by an overwhelming majority
There will be much clapping of hands about the late Charter election at Albany. The Regency ought to have carried that, tho' to be sure it dont amount to much, Are you married? — Yours as formerly
Frank
Oct 6th 1832

Dont be startled George, I have not come to afflict you with a letter. The
evidence you have given of a disposition
to close that concern, however blind
I would be for a time, cannot with propriety
be longer disregarded. Nevertheless I am very desirous of seeing you. Will you meet
me in Boston on the 18th inst I shall be there at that time —
Maine, has on the whole, done nobly —
I think there can be no doubt of the Generals
re-election by an overwhelming majority
There will be much clapping of hands about
the late Charter election at Albany. The Regency ought to have carried that, tho' to be sure it dont amount to much. Are you married? — yours as formerly
Frank —
Hillsboro' Oct 6th

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society
Date: Oct. 6, 1832
Description: Franklin Pierce letter to George Washington Pierce