

Concord, Dec 31, 1832

My Dear George—

allow me to introduce to you Mr Lewis Weld principal of the assylum at Hartford— as a gentleman of finished manners, exalted character, and one in whom you will become highly interested—

His exhibition before our Legislature was extremely interesting to all— I have only time to congratulate you upon your marriage which was made known to me only thro the medium of the publick journals—

This isn't exactly right we made each other some promises at N—Hampton upon this subject—

I don't mean that we wouldn't be married, for I too am on the way but was I not to have some notice of the wedding?— My best regards
