

Hillsboro, Jan<sup>y</sup> 14 1833

A reason should be assigned, my dear George, for what must have appeared gross negligence in me, Yours of Nov<sup>r</sup> 27 arrived while I was at Concord, was mislaid and not ten minutes since while looking over a drawer where my papers are occasionally deposited during my absence it for the first time caught my eye - With a full heart I congratulated you in my last upon your then recent political triumph - With more feeling more joy do I now salute you as the husband of a Lady, who I am assured is in every respect worthy, even of Geo Pierce - You have acted the part of a wise man - who would have expected it?
Our dreams at the school were in some particulars right in others d—sh erroneous and in nothing more so than in the supposition that our union with a lovely woman would interfere with and check the course of our ambition - To show that words here are not used as mere counters I will just say, that I am

Hillsboro, Jan 14 1833

A reason should be assigned, my dear George,
for what must have appeared gross negligence
in me, Yours of Nov<sup>r</sup> 27 arrived while I was at Concord was mislaid and not
ten minutes since while looking over a
drawer where my papers are occasionally
deposited during my absence it for the first time caught my eye - With a full
heart I congratulated you in my last upon
your then recent political triumph - & with
more feeling more joy do I now salute
you as the husband of a Lady who I am
assured is in every respect worthy, even
of Geo Pierce - You have acted the part
of a wise man - who would have expected it?
Our dreams at the school were in some
particulars right in others d—sh erroneous
and in nothing more so than in the supposition
that our union with a lovely woman would
interfere with and check the course of our ambition -
To show that words here are not used as
mere counters I will just say, that I am

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual.

Date: Jan. 14, 1833

Description: Franklin Pierce letter about marriage following your good example — Need I tell you who is ma belle affiancè? Jane Appleton — She is now in Boston and I shall be there tomorrow — I thank you George, for your advice. The course which you suggest is one which I have thus far pursued — I have never saught the influence or the favor of any distinguished individual. I have avoided anything more than a frank & cordial intercourse with any with whom I might by ~~any~~ possibility hereafter come in collision — but I have assiduously sought for the confidence & friendship for you may inspire a sort of friendship ~~among~~ among masses of men as well as individuals of the party generally & I believe have not sought in vain — How I may be able to sustain myself hereafter time must determine of one thing I am sure. the hopes and expectations of my political friends to whom I owe so much shall not be defeated for the want of a firm adherence to — democratick principles and a manly support of their interests — In return for yr advice, let me admonish you not to speak too often, address yourself only to questions of importance. There

following your good example — Need I tell you who is ma belle affiancè? Jane Appleton —
She is now in Boston and I shall be there
tomorrow — I thank you George, for your
advice. The course which you suggest is one which I have thus far pursued — I have never
saught the influence or the favor of any distinguished
individual. I have avoided anything more than
a frank & cordial intercourse with any with
whom I might by any possibility hereafter
come in collision — but I have assiduously
sought for the confidence & friendship (for you may inspire a sort of friendship [crossed out] among masses of men as well as individuals)
of the party generally & I believe have not
sought in vain — How I may be able to
sustain myself hereafter time must determine
of one thing I am sure the hopes and
expectations of my political friends to whom
I owe so much shall not be defeated
for the want of a firm adherence to —
democratick principles and a manly
support of their interests — In return
for yr advice let me admonish you
not to speak too often, address yourself
only to questions of importance. There is nothing which will so soon prostrate a mans influence in a deliberative assembly as holding himself cheap speaking to trifling questions — nothing would give me so much pleasure as to look in upon you at Augusta this winter — that will be impossible but I intend to visit Portland next summer Is Cilly a member of your Legislature?

he wrote me some time since that Ruggles & himself were at point — and that his election was a matter of much doubt — I gave Mr Weld a letter of introduction to you while at Concord. has it been presented? — In great haste yrs as ever
F—

Send me the Report of your Committee of the House upon Nullification would it not be well to make a speech on it —

is nothing which will so soon prostrate
a mans influence in a deliberative assembly
as holding himself cheap — speaking to trifling
questions — nothing would give me so much
pleasure as to look in upon you at Augusta
this winter — that will be impossible but
I intend to visit Portland next summer

Is Cilly a member of your Legislature?
he wrote me some time since that Ruggles
& himself were at point — and that his election
was a matter of much doubt — I gave
Mr Weld a letter of introduction to you while
at Concord. has it been presented? —

In great haste
yrs as ever
F—

Send me the report of yr committee—& action of the House upon Nullification would it not be well to make a speech on it —