

Washington Jan 7, 1834

Dear George

Yours of the 2nd inst was received this morning and the impression which you have received from my silence makes me really unhappy - I did part with you George with warm & grateful feelings feeling as I trust which no circumstances will ever alter - I have thought of you much and I can never recur to my visit at your house without the most agreeable recollections I should have written but Smith occupies a room contiguous to me I knew that he was writing to you often and that you were receiving thro' other sources all the intelligence of interest which I should only repeat - And thus satisfied myself with delay until I could salute you at Augusta - My letter addressed to that place has doubtless been received - you

Washington Jan 7, 1834

Dear George

Yours of the 2nd inst was received this morning and the impression which you have received from my silence makes me really unhappy - I did part with you George with warm & grateful feelings as I trust which no circumstances will ever alter - I have thought of you much and I can never recur to my visit at your house without the most agreeable recollections I should have written but Smith occupies a room contiguous to me I knew that he was writing to you often and that you were receiving thro' other sources all the intelligence of interest which I should only repeat - And thus satisfied myself with delay until I could salute you at Augusta - My letter addressed to that place has doubtless been received - you

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual

Date: January 7, 1834

Description: Franklin Pierce to George Pierce.

will pardon me I know & you must justify me to your wife to whom I am in a great measure indebted for the enjoyment of two or three of the happiest days of my life - The deposit question continues to be the one of all absorbing interest - in both houses - Benton will close his masterly argument in the Senate and Binney of Philadelphia is to give us a talk this morning I shall not be surprised if the debate continues for three weeks to come - I think Bentons speech one of the most masterly efforts ever made in Congress - but everybody will be tired in a day or two and Speakers will declaim for their constituents not for the House - Binney you know has a very excellent reputation as a lawyer but from what I have seen of him I think he is likely to add nothing to his reputation by entering the lists as a parliamentary debater - Mrs McLanes party last night - the first of the season - was brilliant - but to me not particularly agreeable - in order to enjoy these affairs one should be extensively acquainted with those whom he meets - you have

will pardon me I know & you must
justify me to your wife to whom I am in a
great measure indebted for the enjoyment
of two or three of the happiest days of my life -

The deposit question continues to be the
one of all absorbing interest - in both houses - Benton
will close his masterly argument in the Senate
and Binney of Philadelphia is to give us a talk
this morning I shall not be surprised if the
debate continues for three weeks to come - I think
Bentons speech one of the most masterly efforts
ever made in Congress - but everybody will be tired in a day or two speakers will declaim
for their constituents not for the House - Binney
you know has a very excellent reputation as a lawyer but from what I have seen so far I think he is likely to add nothing to his reputation by entering
the lists as a parliamentary debater - Mrs McLanes[?]
party last night - the first of the season - was
brilliant - but to me not particularly agreeable -
in order to enjoy these affairs one should be extensively
acquainted with those whom he meets - you have

observed the manner in which [?] are got up & conducted here & want no description from me - My health is good and I find a residence here quite as agreeable as I anticipated - Benney has commenced his speech in a style that gives earnest of at least a neat & plausible speech, to which I am disposed to listen so good bye for the present My kindest regards to Mrs Pierce - as ever yours truly
Frank Pierce

observed the manner in which [?] are got up & conducted here & want no description from
me - My health is good and I find
a residence here quite as agreeable as
I anticipated - Benney has commenced his
speech in a style that gives earnest of at least a neat & plausible speech, to which I
am disposed to listen so good bye for the present
My kindest regards to Mrs Pierce -

As ever yours truly
Frank Pierce