Maine Sanatorium Hebron, Maine

Dear Sir: Seeing your advertisement in the Maine Farmer of Sept. 24. I am writing to learn particulars. Should you care to employ adult women instead of girls and we could make satisfactory arrangements I and a friend of mine might engage with you as table girl, chambermaid. Several from our town have worked in and around the premises of the Sanatorium and have complained of poor food. We would want good nourishing food not luxurious. What would be a general outline of the work in the dining-room? How many rooms would be included in the chamber work? Would the outdoor sleeping berths of the patients come under that head? We can furnish references &c.
