

Baldwin, March, 17th

Dear Anne,

You may with truth say that the Old Maid, if not lazy is at least negligent, as she would ere this have returned an answer to your last kind communication, which was the more acceptable, as it was unlooked for, as I did not know of your return from Brunswick; I was rejoiced to learn from George's letter to his Mother, that you were again happily settled in your own home, from his account of the depredations of Jack Frost. I should infer that you would not very readily be induced to, again leave him Master of the premises.

Mother begs you to accept, together with her love and best wishes, the apple sauce and butter, which she sends, could she have sent them earlier in the season they would have been better filled, do not trouble yourself to remove the contents of the firkins, untill you have disposed of them in a proper way, that is eaten them up, as she shall not

Baldwin, March 17th

Dear Anne,

You may with truth say that the Old Maid, if not lazy is at least negligent, as she would ere this have returned an answer to your last kind communication, which was the more acceptable, as it was unlooked for, as I did not know of your return from Brunswick; I was rejoiced to learn from George's letter to his Mother that you were again happily settled in your own house, from his account of the depredations of Jack Frost. I should infer that you would not very readily be induced to, again leave him Master of the premises.

Mother begs you to accept, together with her love and best wishes, the apple sauce and butter, which she sends, could she have sent them earlier in the season they would have been better filled, do not trouble yourself to remove the contents of the firkins, untill you have disposed of them in a proper way, that is eaten them up, as she shall not

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society

Date: March 17, 1833

Description: Hannah Pierce to Anne Longfellow Pierce

need to use them untill another Autumn.
I thank you for your kind invitation
to visit you and, anticipate much pleasure
from seeing you at your own house.
This week I visit Ruth, and shall go to Portland so soon as the charring is good.

Will you remember
me kindly to your Mother, Sisters
and Aunt Lucia.

Yours affectionately
Hannah.

My love to your Husband.

need to use them untill another Autumn.
I thank you for your kind invitation
to visit you and, anticipate much pleasure
from seeing you at your own house.
This week I visit Ruth, and shall go
to Portland so soon as the charring [?]
is good.

Will you remember
me kindly to your Mother, Sisters
and Aunt Lucia.

Yours affectionately
Hannah

My love to your Husband.