

Bridgeton July 22. 1814

The members of the Philomadelphoi Society, gladly embracing every opportunity to encourage female Education and believing that such an object may be much promoted by conferring some mark of distinction on Ladies of merit, have thought proper to authorize us the undersigned to certify and We do by these presents certify that Miss Hannah Pierce is elected a member of the Philomadelphoi Society: that she is entitled to the privilege of taking books from the Library of said society by her own hand or her order: and that this tribute of respect is paid her, in consideration of her mental and personal accomplishments.
