

Saco. Monday Morning .6. o'clock

Well my Dear Brother,

I am shurely in Saco ^{ding}

I at Miss Beuminster and to beshure it is a good place to board at; all except some little things of no consequence. I have been to school two days and an half and have not recited but 5 chapters. And I can say right out like a man that I do not like Mr Hailes manner of instructing but I suppose that he does as well or beter with a fillow like me than can be expected.

and I have finished breasfast and attend prays and Mrs. Bueminster says that I must write you that I am extremely hapy and so I suppose that I am obliged to do as she says although I am not exactly so. The preceptor will not let me get more than 2. chapters in a day I have not formed much acquaintance yet. but I think that I shall soon, for there are Ociens of Girles and Boys that now attend the Academy at this time. Well Mr H. has just that he expects you over here this week and and so do for I wish to see you very much.

our affectionate Brother
George W Pierce

if you will come over here this week I will give you some maple Sugar.
